

Doctoral Series: Vol. 1
The Concept of Income - A Multi-Disciplinary Analysis

CONTENTS

PART I: THEORY OF INCOME

CHAPTER 1: TAX FAIRNESS

Introduction
Well-being
Optimal Tax Theory
Fairness
Horizontal Equity
Ability to Pay
Global and Schedular Income Tax Systems
Summary

CHAPTER 2: FOUNDATION CONCEPT OF INCOME

Introduction
Psychic Income
Goods and Services
Fisher's Analysis of Total Flow of Services
Posner's Nonpecuniary Benefits
Subjective Measurements
The Search for Objectivity
Money Income
Consumption Expenditure
Source of Satisfactions
Development of the Schanz-Haig-Simons Model
The Schanz Contribution
The Haig Contribution
Reconciliation of Wealth Accrual and Psychic Based Concepts of Income
Simons's Concept
Rights and Expectations
Hicksian Analysis
Fisher's Exclusion of Savings
Imputed Income
Superiority of the Schanz-Haig-Simons Based Foundation Concept of Income
Summary

CHAPTER 3: ECONOMISTS' DEVIATIONS FROM THE FOUNDATION CONCEPT OF INCOME

Introduction
Preservation of Source
Clear Surplus and Human Capital Maintenance
Net Product
Productivity
Periodicity
Essential Nature of Periodicity

Permanence of Source
Summary

CHAPTER 4: ACCOUNTANTS' INCLINATION TOWARDS THE FOUNDATION CONCEPT OF INCOME

Introduction
Recasting Hicks's Definition of Income
Periodic Measurement
Transactions Approach and Realization of Income
Doctrine of Conservatism
Influence of Taxation Law on Accounting Income
Foundation Concept of Income and Transactions and Realization Approaches
Modified Historic Cost
Holding Gains
Liabilities
Comprehensive Income
International Accounting Concepts
United States Accounting Concepts
Australian Accounting Concepts
New Zealand Accounting Concepts
Remaining Differences Between Foundation and Accounting Concepts of Income
Summary

CHAPTER 5: DEVELOPMENT OF THE LEGAL CONCEPT OF TAXABLE INCOME

Introduction
Income and Other Receipts and Benefits
Genesis of United Kingdom Income Tax Legislation
Incomings
Convertibility into Cash
Periodicity
Rewards of Employment or Vocation
History of the Legal Distinction Between Income and Other Receipts in England
Realization
Trust Law Principle
Transposition of Trust Law Principle to Income Tax Law
Precarious Income
Form, Substance, and Economic Effect
Genesis of New Zealand Income Tax Legislation
United States History of the Legal Treatment of Income and Capital
Eisner v. Macomber
Inappropriateness of the Res Concept
Incompatibility of Trust Law Principle and Tax Policy Objectives
Ordinary Concepts and Usages
Ectopic Income Tax Law
Summary

PART II: SELECTED ECONOMIC EVENTS

CHAPTER 6: BUSINESS INCOME

Introduction
Ordinary Gains in the Course of Business

Banking Companies
Insurance Companies
Finance Companies
Investment Companies
Other Types of Business
Profit Making Purpose and Scheme
Extraordinary Transactions in the Course of Business
Australian Hire Company Cases
Summary

CHAPTER 7: TIMING OF INCOME RECOGNITION

Introduction
Myer Emporium and the Foundation Concept of Income
Lease Inducement Payments
Distinction Based on Choice
Interpretation of Lease Agreement
New Zealand Judicial View of Lease Inducement Payments
New Zealand Legislation
Patent Rights
Film Owners
Royalties
Summary

CHAPTER 8: ILLUSORY GAINS

Introduction
Inflationary Gains
Bonus Share Issues
Cum Dividend Shares
Share Repurchases
Further Consequences Myer
Recognition of Value
Annuities
Legislative Language
Summary

CHAPTER 9: CAPITAL GAINS

Introduction
Realized Capital Gains
Capital Losses
Inconsistencies in New Zealand Tax Legislation
Personal Property Sales
Land Sales
Purpose
Subjective Purpose
Dominant Purpose
Purpose and Intention
Expected and Unexpected Gains
Undertaking or Scheme
Degree of Precision
Debt Instruments
Excepted Financial Arrangements

Cash Basis Holders
Summary

CHAPTER 10: GIFTS AND WINDFALL GAINS

Introduction
Meaning of Gift and Windfall Gain
Psychological Factors
Cultural Considerations
Koha
Accounting Treatment
Exclusion of Gifts and Windfall Gains from the Legal Concept of Income
Gifts from Employers
Question of Degree
Exceptionality Criterion
Different Judicial Interpretations of Fact
United States Approach
Koha and the Legal Concept of Income
Intra-family Payments
New Zealand Tax Legislation
Summary

CHAPTER 11: BENEFITS OF KIND

Introduction
Issues of Definition
Deferred Property Settlements
Economic Income
Accounting for Benefits in Kind
United Kingdom Legal Concept
Dual Benefit to Employee and Employer
Valuation and Rights
Judicial Reservations about the Convertibility Principle
New Zealand Cases
Legislative Amendments
Benefits from Expenditure Saved
Fringe Benefit Tax
Frequent Flyer Rewards
Summary

CHAPTER 12: IMPUTED INCOME

Introduction
Meaning of Imputed Income
Theoretical Considerations
Owner Occupied Housing
Self Performed Services
Leisure
Measurement Difficulties
International Experience
United Kingdom
Australia
European Jurisdictions
Other Jurisdictions

New Zealand
Summary

CHAPTER 13: CONCLUSION

The Underlying Premise
The Foundation Concept of Income
Market Valuation
Liquidity
Constraining Factors
Inadequacies of the Legal Concept of Income
The Next Step

References

Bibliography
Case References
Statutory and Parliamentary References