

Michael Butler

Michael Butler works at Finlaysons, Adelaide, as Head of the Tax & Revenue Group, a specialist team with expertise in federal, state, and international tax law. He has more than 20 years of experience in advising clients on tax matters for leading law firms in London, New York and Sydney. The strength of his expertise has enabled him to establish an international practice with a special interest in property taxation, international tax matters, corporate restructurings, and estate and business succession planning.

Michael's approach is to be a true specialist, focusing solely on taxation issues; he commits to being at the forefront of changes to relevant legislation and policy. He is author of the textbook 'Australian Federal Company Taxation', has published numerous articles in tax journals, and is the Visiting Lecturer in Taxation at the University of Adelaide.

Michael Butler is an instructor on the following course:

► Principles of Transfer Pricing

For a full list of all our courses click here.

