

Fabiola Rossi

Fabiola Rossi is a Senior Associate in the tax department at Bonelli Erede Pappalardo. She advises on domestic and international tax issues and is involved in company restructurings, cross-border transactions, equity and debt issues. Mrs Rossi also provides tax advisory services to large companies in the industrial, insurance and financial sectors, and has experience in domestic and international accounting principles. She represents clients in litigation before Italian tax courts.

Between 1996 and 2003, she worked at Studio Di Tanno e Associati. From June to October 2001, under a secondment program, she assisted the Italian coverage team in securitization, bond issuance and structured transactions of a European background at the London office of Lehman Brothers International.

Mrs Rossi teaches periodically at postgraduate seminars at LUISS University and at IPSOA. She also speaks at conferences on taxation. She graduated cum magna laude in Economics and Business in 1995 from the University of Rome. In 1996 she obtained a post-graduate degree in International Tax Law also from the University of Rome. Her dissertation was on "Taxation of non-resident companies". Mrs Rossi is a Tax Consultant and Chartered Accountant and a Chartered Auditor.

Fabiola Rossi is an instructor on the following course:

► Mergers and Acquisitions

For a full list of all our courses click here.

