

Observatory for the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights

Below you will find a questionnaire filled in by or with the contribution of the National Reporter of Brazil, Mr. Dalton Dallazem, a representative of the tax practitioners.

This questionnaire comprises the National Reporter assessment on the level of compliance of the minimum standards and best practices on the practical protection of taxpayers' rights identified by Prof. Dr. Pistone and Prof. Dr. Philip Baker at the 2015 IFA Congress on "The Practical Protection of Taxpayers' Rights". This report was filled in considering the following parameters:

1. It contains information on those issues in which there were movements towards or away from the level of compliance of the relevant standard/best practice in Brazil between 2015 and 2017.
2. It is indicated, by the use of a checkmark (☑) whether there were movements towards or away from of the level of compliance of the relevant standard/best practice in Brazil between 2015 and 2017.

It contains a summarized account on facts (legislation enacted, administrative rulings, circulars, case law, tax administration practices) that serves as grounds for each particular assessment of the level of compliance of a given minimum standard / best practice, in a non-judgmental way.

Country: BRAZIL

Minimum Standard	Best Practice	Shift towards	Shift away	Development
1. Identifying taxpayers, issuing tax returns and communicating with taxpayers
Implement safeguards to prevent impersonation when issuing unique identification numbers				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
The system of taxpayer identification should take account of religious sensitivities				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Impose obligations of confidentiality on third parties with respect to information gathered by them for tax purposes	Where tax is withheld by third parties, the taxpayer should be excluded from liability if the third party fails to pay over the tax			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Where pre-populated returns are used, these should be sent to taxpayers to correct errors				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Provide a right of access for taxpayers to personal information held about them, and a right to apply to correct inaccuracies	Publish guidance on taxpayers' rights to access information and correct inaccuracies			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Where communication with taxpayers is in electronic form, institute systems to prevent impersonation or interception		✓		A slight improvement on an ancillary duty called "e-financeira" (electronic financial report – created by the Normative Instruction nº 1.571/2015), which must be filled by entities selling pension plans and entities managing individual retirement funds. The Executive Act nº 33/2017 introduced the Manual of Data Compression and Encryption for the electronic financial report (http://normas.receita.fazenda.gov.br/sijut2consulta/link.action?idAto=82630&visao=anotado).
Where a system of "cooperative compliance" operates, ensure it is available on a non-discriminatory and voluntary basis				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Provide assistance for those who face difficulties in meeting compliance obligations, including those with disabilities, those located in remote areas, and those				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

unable or unwilling to use electronic forms of communication
2.The issue of tax assessment
	Establish a constructive dialogue between taxpayers and revenue authorities to ensure a fair assessment of taxes based on equality of arms			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Minimum Standard	Best Practice	Shift towards	Shift away	Development
2. The issue of tax assessment (cont)
	Use e-filing to speed up assessments and correction of errors, particularly systematic errors			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
3. Confidentiality
Provide a specific legal guarantee for confidentiality, with sanctions for officials who make unauthorised disclosures (and ensure sanctions are enforced)	Encrypt information held by a tax authority about taxpayers to the highest level attainable			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Restrict access to data to those officials authorised to consult it. For encrypted data, use digital access codes	Ensure an effective fire-wall to prevent unauthorised access to data held by revenue authorities			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Audit data access periodically to identify cases of unauthorised access				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Introduce administrative measures emphasising confidentiality to tax officials	Appoint data protection/privacy officers at senior level and local tax offices			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
If a breach of confidentiality occurs, investigate fully with an appropriate level of seniority by independent persons (e.g. judges)				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Introduce an offence for tax officials covering up unauthorised disclosure of confidential information				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Provide remedies for taxpayers who are victims of unauthorised				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

disclosure of confidential information
Exceptions to the general rule of confidentiality should be explicitly stated in the law, narrowly drafted and interpreted		✓		On August 30, 2016, the Brazilian Government enacted the Decree 8,842/2016 approving the OECD's Multilateral Convention on Mutual Assistance in Tax Matters, for purposes of implementing an international agreement for the automatic exchange of information under the common reporting standard (CRS) regime. The Multilateral Convention foresees administrative cooperation to combating tax avoidance and evasion related to transactions carried out from 1st January, 2017.
If "naming and shaming" is employed, ensure adequate safeguards (e.g. judicial authorisation after proceedings involving the taxpayer)	Require judicial authorisation before any disclosure of confidential information by revenue authorities			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
No disclosure of confidential taxpayer information to politicians, or where it might be used for political purposes	Parliamentary supervision of revenue authorities should involve independent officials, subject to confidentiality obligations, examining specific taxpayer data, and then reporting to Parliament			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

Minimum Standard	Best Practice	Shift towards	Decrease	Development
3. Confidentiality (cont).
Freedom of information legislation may allow a taxpayer to access information about himself. However, access to information by third parties should be subject to stringent safeguards: only if an independent tribunal concludes that the public interest in disclosure outweighs the right of confidentiality, and only after a hearing where the taxpayer has an opportunity to be heard				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
If published, tax rulings should be anonymised and details that might identify the taxpayer removed	Anonymise all tax judgments and remove details that might identify the taxpayer			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Legal professional privilege should apply to tax advice	Privilege from disclosure should apply to all tax advisors (not just lawyers) who supply similar advice to lawyers. Information imparted in circumstances of confidentiality may be privileged from disclosure			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Where tax authorities enter premises which may contain privileged material, arrangements should be made (e.g. an independent lawyer) to protect that privilege				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

4. Normal audits.
Audits should respect the following principles: (1) Proportionality (2) Ne bis in idem (prohibition on double jeopardy) (3) Audi alteram partem (right to be heard before any decision is taken) (4) Nemo tenetur se detegere (principle against self-incrimination). Tax notices issued in violation of these principles should be null and void				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
In application of proportionality, tax authorities may only request for information that is strictly needed, not otherwise available, and must impose least burdensome impact on taxpayers				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

Minimum Standard	Best Practice	Shift towards	Shift away	Development
4. Normal audits (cont).
	In application of ne bis in idem the taxpayer should only receive one audit per taxable period, except when facts that become known after the audit was completed
In application of audi alteram partem , taxpayers should have the right to attend all relevant meetings with tax authorities (assisted by advisors), the right to provide factual information, and to present their views before decisions of the tax authorities become final				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
In application of nemo tenetur , the right to remain silent should be respected in tax audits.				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

	A manual of good practice in tax audits should			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

	be established at the global level
	Taxpayers should be entitled to request the start of a tax audit (to obtain finality)			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Where tax authorities have resolved to start an audit, they should inform the taxpayer	Where tax authorities have resolved to start an audit, they should hold an initial meeting with the taxpayer in which they spell out the aims and procedure, together with timescale and targets. They should then disclose any additional evidence in their possession to the taxpayer			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Taxpayers should be informed of information gathering from third parties				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	Reasonable time limits should be fixed for the conduct of audits			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Technical assistance (including representation) should be available at all stages of the audit by experts selected by the taxpayer				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
4. Normal audits (cont).
The completion of a tax audit should be accurately reflected in a document, notified in its full text to the taxpayer	The drafting of the final audit report should involve participation by the taxpayer, with the opportunity to correct inaccuracies of facts and to express the taxpayer's view			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	Following an audit, a report should be prepared even if the audit does not result in additional tax or refund			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
5. More intensive audits.
	More intensive audits should be limited to the extent strictly necessary to ensure an effective reaction to non-compliance			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
If there is point in an audit when it becomes foreseeable that the taxpayer may be liable for a penalty or criminal charge, from that time the taxpayer should have stronger protection of his right to silence, and statements from the taxpayer should not be used in the audit				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

procedure
Entering premises or interception of communications should be authorised by the judiciary				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Authorisation within the revenue authorities should only be in cases of urgency, and subsequently reported to the judiciary for ex post ratification				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Inspection of the taxpayer's home should require authorisation by the judiciary and only be given in exceptional cases.	Where tax authorities intend to search the taxpayer's premises, the taxpayer should be informed and have an opportunity to appear before the judicial authority, subject to exception where there is evidence of danger that documents will be removed or destroyed			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	Access to bank information should require judicial authorisation			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	Authorisation by the judiciary should be necessary for interception of telephone communications and monitoring of internet access. Specialised offices within the judiciary should be established to supervise these actions			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Minimum Standard	Best Practice	Improve	Shift away	Development
5. More intensive audits (cont).

	If data are held on a computer hard drive, then a backup should be made in the presence of the taxpayer's advisors and the original left with the taxpayer			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Where invasive techniques are applied, they should be limited in time to avoid disproportionate impact on taxpayers				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
6. Review and appeals.
	E-filing of requests for internal review to ensure the effective and speedy handling of the review process			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
The right of appeal should not depend				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

upon prior exhaustion of administrative reviews
	Reviews and appeals should not exceed two years			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Audi alteram partem should apply in administrative reviews and judicial appeals			✓	One decision of the Federal Court of Appeals having jurisdiction over the States of PR, SC e RS (Tribunal Regional Federal da 4ª Região) ruled that the first-level administrative secret judgments do not violate the due process of law (judicial proceeding 5049862-61.2014.4.04.7000). The Bar Association appealed to the Superior Court of Justice and to the Supreme Court. Those high-level Courts have not yet examined the case.
Where tax must be paid in whole or in part before an appeal, there must be an effective mechanism for providing interim suspension of payment	An appeal should not require prior payment of tax in all cases			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	The state should bear some or all of the costs of an appeal, whatever the outcome			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Legal assistance should be provided for those taxpayers who cannot afford it				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Taxpayers should have the right to request the exclusion of the public from a tax appeal hearing				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Tax judgments should be published				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

Minimum Standard	Best Practice	Shift towards	Shift away	Development
7. Criminal and administrative sanctions.
Proportionality and ne bis in idem should apply to tax penalties				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	Where administrative and criminal sanctions may both apply, only one procedure and one sanction should be applied			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	Voluntary disclosure should lead to reduction of penalties			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Sanctions should not be increased simply to encourage taxpayers to make voluntary disclosures				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

8. Enforcement of taxes.
Collection of taxes should never deprive taxpayers of their minimum necessary for living				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	Authorisation by the judiciary should be required before seizing assets or bank accounts		✓	The Law nº 13.606, entered into force on January 10 th , 2018, introduced the article 20-B to the Law nº 10.522/2002, which allows a prejudgment attachment without authorisation by the judiciary.

	Public consultation should precede the making of tax policy and tax law			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

Minimum Standard	Best Practice	Shift towards	Shift away	Development
11. Revenue practice and guidance.
Taxpayers should be entitled to access all relevant legal material, comprising legislation, administrative regulations, rulings, manuals and other guidance				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Where legal material is available				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.

primarily on the internet, arrangements should be made to provide it to those who do not have access to the internet
Binding rulings should only be published in an anonymised form				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
Where a taxpayer relies upon published guidance of a revenue authority which subsequently proves to be inaccurate, changes should apply only prospectively				Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
12. Institutional framework for protecting taxpayers' rights.
Adoption of a charter or statement of taxpayers' rights should be a minimum standard	A separate statement of taxpayers' rights under audit should be provided to taxpayers who are audited			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	A taxpayer advocate or ombudsman should be established to scrutinise the operations of the tax authority, handle specific complaints, and intervene in appropriate cases. Best practice is the establishment of a separate office within the tax authority but independent from normal operations of that authority			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
	The organisational structure for the protection of taxpayers' rights should operate at local level as well as nationally			Neither an improvement nor a decrease of the level of compliance.
