

Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights

Below you will find a questionnaire filled in by Katerina Pantazatou, Associate Professor at the University of Luxembourg and OPTR National Reporter of Luxembourg.

Prof. Pantazatou would like to thank Dr. Alain Steichen and Mr. Francois Guilloteau for their precious help.

This set of questionnaires comprise the National Reporter's assessment on the country practice during 2018 in the protection of taxpayers' rights (Questionnaire # 1), and the level of fulfilment of the minimum standards and best practices on the practical protection of taxpayers' rights identified by Prof. Dr. Philip Baker and Prof. Dr. Pasquale Pistone at the 2015 IFA Congress on "The Practical Protection of Taxpayers' Fundamental Rights" (Questionnaire # 2). These questionnaires were filled in considering the following parameters:

1. For Questionnaire # 1, an assertive assessment (yes/no) was required on the effective implementation in domestic law of 82 legal safeguards, guarantees and procedures relevant in 12 specific areas for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights, as identified by Baker & Pistone in 2015. This line of questioning aims to get an overview of the state of protection of taxpayers' rights in the country in 2018.
2. For Questionnaire # 2, an impartial, non-judgmental evaluation was required on the developments, either of improvement or of decline, in the level of realisation of 57 minimum standards and 44 best practices, distributed into 87 benchmarks for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights. In this regard, a summary of events occurred in 2018 (legislation enacted, administrative rulings, circulars, case law, tax administration practices), that serve as grounds for each particular assessment, was also required.

#	Question	Yes	No

(if a systematic error comes to light then the administration usually reacts by issuing a circular not, by arranging repayments to all affected taxpayers)	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>
9	Does a dialogue take place in your country between the taxpayer and the tax authority before the issue of an assessment in order to reach an agreed assessment? (in the sense of requests for exchange of documents - information, not however in order to negotiate/get a deal as to a final assessment)	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
10	If yes, can the taxpayer request a meeting with the tax officer? (usually, accepted by the TA in cases of individuals but not in order to get a definitive assessment or a clarification as to the law)	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

57	If ne bis in idem is recognised, does this prevent two parallel sets of court proceedings arising from the same factual circumstances (e.g. a tax court and a criminal court)?	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

62	Does the taxpayer have a right to be informed before information is sought from third parties in response to a specific request for exchange of information? Same comment as above - third parties are also covered by confidentiality in case the requesting authority asks so.	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>
63	If no to either of the previous two questions, did your country previously recognise the right of taxpayers to be informed and was such right removed in the context of the peer review by the Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information?	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>
64	Does the taxpayer have the right to be heard by the tax authority before the exchange of information relating to him with another country?	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

19	Is there a system of protection of legally privileged communications between the taxpayer and its advisors? [attorneys are covered, with regard to 'other' advisors usually protection through contractual relationship - waived in case of court order]	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
20	If yes, does this extend to advisors other than those who are legally qualified (e.g. accountants, tax advisors)? [same as above/ unclear as to what is meant with 'other than those who are legally qualified']	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

4. Normal audits

#	Question	Yes	No
21	Does the principle audi alteram partem apply in the tax audit process (i.e. does the taxpayer have to be notified of all decisions taken in the process and have the right to object and be heard before the decision is finalised)? The taxpayer has a right, upon receiving the report by the tax authorities ( 'projet de rapport') to take a position on the report/ contest parts of the report. The taxpayer's view will be taken into account in the final report .	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
22	Are there time limits applicable to the conduct of a normal audit in your country (e.g. the audit must be concluded within so many months)?	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>

30	Does the taxpayer have the right to request an audit (e.g. if the taxpayer wishes to get finality of taxation for a particular year)? TA may give a final assessment without the need for an audit. 35	Is the principle nemo tenetur applied in tax investigations (i.e. the principle against self-incrimination)? In the Luxembourg General Tax Act, it is provided that the taxpayer must disclose all relevant information to the tax authorities, a provision that does not necessarily incorporate the ECHR principle. Following the tax reform of 2017, the tax authorities are obliged to hand over the file to the prosecutor in case it appears that the crimes of the 'fraude fiscale aggravée' or the 'escroquerie fiscale' are fulfilled.	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
36	If yes, is there a restriction on the use of information supplied by the taxpayer in a subsequent penalty procedure/criminal procedure?	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>

39	If yes, is there a requirement to give the taxpayer a warning that the taxpayer can rely on the right of non-self-incrimination?	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

6. Review and appeals
#	Question	Yes	No
40	Is there a procedure for an internal review of an assessment/decision before the taxpayer appeals to the judiciary?	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
41	Are there any arrangements for alternative dispute resolution (e.g. mediation or arbitration) before a tax case proceeds to the judiciary?	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

51	Does the loser have to pay the costs in a tax appeal?	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
52	If yes, are there situations recognised where the loser does not need to pay the costs (e.g. because of the conduct of the other party)?	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
53	Are judgments of tax tribunals published?	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

3	Impose obligations of confidentiality on third parties with respect to information gathered by them for tax purposes		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
4		Where tax is withheld by third parties, the taxpayer should be excluded from liability if the third party fails to pay over the tax	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

9	Provide assistance for those who face difficulties in meeting compliance obligations, including those with disabilities, those located in remote areas, and those unable or unwilling to use electronic forms of communication		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

2. The issue of tax assessment

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
10		Establish a constructive dialogue between taxpayers and revenue authorities to ensure a fair assessment of taxes based on equality of arms	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
11		Use e-filing to speed up assessments and correction of errors, particularly systematic errors	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

3. Confidentiality

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
12	Provide a specific legal guarantee for confidentiality, with sanctions for officials who make unauthorised disclosures (and ensure sanctions are enforced).	Encrypt information held by a tax authority about taxpayers to the highest level attainable.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

13	Restrict access to data to those officials authorised to consult it. For encrypted data, use digital access codes.	Ensure an effective fire-wall to prevent unauthorised access to data held by revenue authorities.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
14	Audit data access periodically to identify cases of unauthorised access.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
15	Introduce administrative measures emphasizing confidentiality to tax officials.	Appoint data protection/privacy officers at senior level and local tax offices.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
16	Where pre/populated returns are used, these should be sent to taxpayers to correct errors.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
17	If a breach of confidentiality occurs, investigate fully with an appropriate level of seniority by independent persons (e.g. judges).		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
18	Introduce an offence for tax officials covering up unauthorised disclosure of confidential information.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
19	Exceptions to the general rule of confidentiality should be explicitly stated in the law, narrowly drafted and interpreted.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
20	If "naming and shaming" is employed, ensure adequate safeguards (e.g. judicial authorisation after proceedings involving the taxpayer).		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
21	No disclosure of confidential taxpayer information to politicians, or where it might be used for political purposes.	Parliamentary supervision of revenue authorities should involve independent officials, subject to confidentiality obligations, examining specific taxpayer data, and then reporting to Parliament.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
22	Freedom of information legislation may allow a taxpayer to access information about himself. However, access to information by third parties should be subject to stringent safeguards: only if an independent tribunal concludes that the public interest in disclosure outweighs the right of confidentiality, and only after a hearing where the taxpayer has an opportunity to be heard.		<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	The General Tax Act (AO) does not contain any specific provisions allowing taxpayers' to access their personal tax file as recently (2017) confirmed by the Tribunal Administratif (Trib. Adm. 30 June 2017 no 37931 and 38551). In the absence of any express provisions, the Tribunal ruled that such a right should be interpreted by virtue of the right of the defence guaranteed under §205 of the General Tax Act. According to §205, the Luxembourg tax authorities have the obligation i) to hear taxpayers prior to issuing adjusted tax assessments, ii) to request additional information from taxpayers whenever necessary; iii) to inform taxpayers prior to the issuance of a tax assessment containing significant changes. Usually, when the tax authorities comply with one of the three obligations, according to the situation at hand, taxpayers' rights of defence are deemed respected by the Courts. The application of §205 of the General Tax Act requires however a pending assessment procedure. Outside of such procedure, a taxpayer cannot rely on §205 to request access to his tax file as confirmed by the the Tribunal Administratif in 2002. Despite the lack of explicit provisions regarding access to information, it may not be excluded that in practice tax offices provide on a voluntary basis copies of information requested by the taxpayer. This may vary according to the personal circumstances put forward by the taxpayer to access the requested data and the flexibility of the competent tax office.
23	If published, tax rulings should be anonymised and details that might identify the taxpayer removed.	Anonymise all tax judgments and remove details that might identify the taxpayer	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
24	Legal professional privilege should apply to tax advice.	Privilege from disclosure should apply to all tax advisors (not just lawyers) who supply similar advice to lawyers. Information imparted in circumstances of confidentiality may be privileged from disclosure.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
25	Where tax authorities enter premises which may contain privileged material, arrangements should be made (e.g. an independent lawyer) to protect that privilege.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

4. Normal audits

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
---	------------------	---------------	------------	---------------	-----------------------------------

26	Audits should respect the following principles: (i) Proportionality. (2) Ne bis in idem (prohibition of double jeopardy). (3) Audi alteram partem (right to be heard before any decision is taken). (4) Nemo tenetur se detegere (principle against self/incrimination). Tax notices issued in violation of these principles should be null and void.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
27	In application of proportionality, tax authorities may only request for information that is strictly needed, not otherwise available, and must impose least burdensome impact on taxpayers.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
28		In application of ne bis in idem the taxpayer should only receive one audit per taxable period, except when facts that become known after the audit was completed.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
29	In application of audi alteram partem , taxpayers should have the right to attend all relevant meetings with tax authorities (assisted by advisors), the right to provide factual information, and to present their views before decisions of the tax authorities become final.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
30	In application of nemo tenetur , the right to remain silent should be respected in all tax audits.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
31		Tax audits should follow a pattern that is set out in published guidelines.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
32		A manual of good practice in tax audits should be established at the global level.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
33		Taxpayers should be entitled to request the start of a tax audit (to obtain finality).	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
34	Where tax authorities have resolved to start an audit, they should inform the taxpayer	Where tax authorities have resolved to start an audit, they should hold an initial meeting with the taxpayer in which they spell out the aims and procedure, together with timescale and targets. They should then disclose any additional evidence in their possession to the taxpayer.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
35	Taxpayers should be informed of information gathering from third parties.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
36		Reasonable time limits should be fixed for the conduct of audits.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
37	Technical assistance (including representation) should be available at all stages of the audit by experts selected by the taxpayer.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
38	The completion of a tax audit should be accurately reflected in a document, notified in its full text to the taxpayer.	The drafting of the final audit report should involve participation by the taxpayer, with the opportunity to correct inaccuracies of facts and to express the taxpayer's view.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
39		Following an audit, a report should be prepared even if the audit does not result in additional tax or refund.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

5. More intensive audits

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
40		More intensive audits should be limited to the extent strictly necessary to ensure an effective reaction to non-compliance.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

41	If there is point in an audit when it becomes foreseeable that the taxpayer may be liable for a penalty or criminal charge, from that time the taxpayer should have stronger protection of his right to silence, and statements from the taxpayer should not be used in the audit procedure.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
42	Entering premises or interception of communications should be authorised by the judiciary.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
43	Authorisation within the revenue authorities should only be in cases of urgency, and subsequently reported to the judiciary for ex post ratification.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
44	Inspection of the taxpayer's home should require authorisation by the judiciary and only be given in exceptional cases.	Where tax authorities intend to search the taxpayer's premises, the taxpayer should be informed and have an opportunity to appear before the judicial authority, subject to exception where there is evidence of danger that documents will be removed or destroyed.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
45		Access to bank information should require judicial authorisation.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
46		Authorisation by the judiciary should be necessary for interception of telephone communications and monitoring of internet access. Specialised offices within the judiciary should be established to supervise these actions.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
47	Seizure of documents should be subject to a requirement to give reasons why seizure is indispensable, and to fix the time when documents will be returned; seizure should be limited in time.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
48		If data are held on a computer hard drive, then a backup should be made in the presence of the taxpayer's advisors and the original left with the taxpayer.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
49	Where invasive techniques are applied, they should be limited in time to avoid disproportionate impact on taxpayers.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

6. Review and appeals

50		E-filing of requests for internal review to ensure the effective and speedy handling of the review process.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
51	The right to appeal should not depend upon prior exhaustion of administrative reviews.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
52		Reviews and appeals should not exceed two years.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
53	Audi alteram partem should apply in administrative reviews and judicial appeals.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
54	Where tax must be paid in whole or in part before and appeal, there must be an effective mechanism for providing interim suspension of payment.	An appeal should not require prior payment of tax in all cases.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
55		The state should bear some or all of the costs of an appeal, whatever the outcome.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
56	Legal assistance should be provided for those taxpayers who cannot afford it.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
57	Taxpayers should have the right to request the exclusion of the public from a tax appeal hearing.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
58	Tax judgments should be published.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

7. Criminal and administrative sanctions

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
59	Proportionality and ne bis in idem should apply to tax penalties.		○	●	One of the big changes - with regard to taxpayers' rights- brought about by the tax reform of 2017 (law of 23 December 2016) was the introduction of the 'fraude fiscale aggravée' (aggravated tax fraud), which was sparked, inter alia, by the need to fight tax fraud. Under the previous legal framework two categories of 'tax crimes' existed, namely the 'fraude fiscale simple' and the 'escroquerie fiscale', both falling under the criminal law proceedings. The new law provides, upon the introduction of the 'fraude fiscale aggravée', for three categories of tax crimes. The 'fraude fiscale simple' now falls under the administrative courts' competences whereas the 'fraude fiscale aggravée' and the 'escroquerie fiscale' fall under the criminal courts' competences. This how the ne bis in idem principle is, somehow, reinforced. In addition to that, the tax reform of 2017 provided for the first time that 'fraude fiscale aggravée' and the 'escroquerie fiscale' are predicate offenses that can trigger the anti-money laundering legislation.
60		Where administrative and criminal sanctions may both apply, only one procedure and one sanction should be applied.	○	○
61		Voluntary disclosure should lead to reduction of penalties.	○	○
62	Sanctions should not be increased simply to encourage taxpayers to make voluntary disclosures.		○	○

8. Enforcement of taxes

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
63	Collection of taxes should never deprive taxpayers of their minimum necessary for living.		○	○
64		Authorisation by the judiciary should be required before seizing assets or bank accounts	○	○
65	Taxpayers should have the right to request delayed payment of arrears.		○	○
66		Bankruptcy of taxpayers should be avoided, by partial remission of the debt or structured plans for deferred payment.	○	○
67	Temporary suspension of tax enforcement should follow natural disasters.		○	○

9. Cross-border procedures

---	------------------	---------------	------------	---------------	-----------------------------------

68	The requesting state should notify the taxpayer of cross-border requests for information, unless it has specific grounds for considering that this would prejudice the process of investigation. The requested state should inform the taxpayer unless it has a reasoned request from the requesting state that the taxpayer should not be informed on grounds that it would prejudice the investigation.	The taxpayer should be informed that a cross-border request for information is to be made.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	After the Berlioz case decision of May 2017, the Luxembourg government submitted a new draft law in December 2017 to comply with the CJEU judgment regarding, notably, the right to an effective judicial remedy. The new Bill of Law (no 7223) was introduced on 19 December 2017. It suggests three amendments to the contested law: a) the verification of the 'foreseeable relevance' by the direct tax authorities; b) the reintroduction of an action for annulment before administrative courts by the taxpayer (recours en annulation) against the request for information (which was abolished by the law of 25 November 2014) and c) the possibility of the judicial authorities to access the information request. Pursuant to section 4 of the law in force (Law of 25 November 2014), which the Bill (no 7223) intends to retain, prior notification to the taxpayer would remain limited for cases in which the requesting tax authority, the foreign competent administration, explicitly requires that the request remains secret. However, in the absence of such a "confidentiality" request from the foreign authority, the current law does not specify the role of the Luxembourg administration with regard to the taxpayers for whom it has the information sought by the foreign authority. In the past, however, administrative practice would provide, on a case-by-case basis, prior notification of taxpayers subject to international control, despite the lack of an expressed legal basis.
69		Where a cross-border request for information is made, the requested state should also be asked to supply information that assists the taxpayer.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
70		Provisions should be included in tax treaties setting specific conditions for exchange of information.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
71	If information is sought from third parties, judicial authorisation should be necessary.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
72		The taxpayer should be given access to information received by the requesting state.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
73		Information should not be supplied in response to a request where the originating cause was the acquisition of stolen or illegally obtained information.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
74		A requesting state should provide confirmation of confidentiality to the requested state.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
75	A state should not be entitled to receive information if it is unable to provide independent, verifiable evidence that it observes high standards of data protection.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
76		For automatic exchange of financial information, the taxpayer should be notified of the proposed exchange in sufficient time to exercise data protection rights.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
77		Taxpayers should have a right to request initiation of mutual agreement procedure.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
78	Taxpayers should have a right to participate in mutual agreement procedure by being heard and being informed as to progress of the procedure.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

10. Legislation

79	Retrospective tax legislation should only be permitted in limited circumstances which are spelt out in detail.	Retrospective tax legislation should ideally be banned completely.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
80		Public consultation should precede the making of tax policy and tax law.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

11. Revenue practice and guidance

---	------------------	---------------	------------	---------------	-----------------------------------

81	Taxpayers should be entitled to access all relevant legal material, comprising legislation, administrative regulations, rulings, manuals and other guidance.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
82	Where legal material is available primarily on the internet, arrangements should be made to provide it to those who do not have access to the internet.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
83	Binding rulings should only be published in an anonymised form		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
84	Where a taxpayer relies upon published guidance of a revenue authority which subsequently proves to be inaccurate, changes should apply only prospectively.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

12. Institutional framework for protecting taxpayer's rights

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
85	Adoption of a charter or statement of taxpayers' rights should be a minimum standard.	A separate statement of taxpayers' rights under audit should be provided to taxpayers who are audited.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
86		A taxpayer advocate or ombudsman should be established to scrutinise the operations of the tax authority, handle specific complaints, and intervene in appropriate cases. Best practice is the establishment of a separate office within the tax authority but independent from normal operations of that authority.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
87		The organisational structure for the protection of taxpayers' rights should operate at local level as well as nationally.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
