

Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights

Below you will find a questionnaire filled in by Robin Williamson, Fellow at the Chartered Institute of Taxation and OPTR National Reporter of United Kingdom.

This set of questionnaires comprise the National Reporter's assessment on the country practice during 2021 in the protection of taxpayers' rights, and the level of fulfilment of the minimum standards and best practices on the practical protection of taxpayers' rights identified by Prof. Dr. Philip Baker and Prof. Dr. Pasquale Pistone at the 2015 IFA Congress on "The Practical Protection of Taxpayers' Fundamental Rights".

OPTR - 2021 Questionnaire 1 - Country Practice

Dear National Reporter,

I would like to thank you for your participation in the IBFD's Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights (OPTR).

This form collects the information on the practical implementation in domestic law of legal procedures, safeguards and guarantees associated with taxpayers' rights in 82 situations for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights, as monitored by the IBFD Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights.

We kindly ask you to assess assertively (yes/no) the level of practical implementation of said procedures, safeguards and guarantees associated with taxpayers' rights in your country. When answering, please bear in mind the actual practice regarding each situation, regardless of whether a given procedure, safeguard or guarantee has been formally adopted in your country.

We would be very grateful if you submit us this questionnaire, duly filled out, by no later than 14 January 2022.

Feel free to contact us for any clarification you may need. We look forward to your valuable contribution to this remarkable project.

Kind regards,

Prof. Dr. Carlos E. Weffe
Scientific Coordinator
IBFD Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights.

Questionnaire 1 - Country Practice

Instructions:

1. Please answer all questions. The form will not allow you to continue/submit your responses until you have answered all questions.
2. For assertive questions, please answer with "yes" or "no" by clicking on the corresponding button.
3. For questions that require you to specify a period of time (namely, Q. 26 and Q. 45), please select the time applicable in your country to carry out the procedures indicated in the questions in practice, within the options provided.
4. For questions with more than one possible answer (namely, Q. 56), please check all necessary boxes to reflect better the practical situation of your country regarding the issue, by clicking on them.
5. When completed, please submit the survey.
6. Once you have submitted the survey, you will receive an email acknowledging your participation in the OPTR and providing a backup of your answers.

7. The email will also include an "edit your survey" link, in case you want to modify any of your answers. You will receive this email every time you submit partial responses.

8. An option to quit the survey and save your answers is provided at the end of each section.

9. If answering partially, please select "Yes" at the end of the section in which you are to submit your partial answers to the survey. To edit/complete your answers later, please use the "edit your response" link sent to your email after submitting this survey.

10. For editing your answers, please use the last "edit your response" link provided to you via email. Please bear in mind that this is the only way the system will acknowledge your previous answers. If you use a link other than the last one provided, some (or all) changes might not be retrieved by the system.

11. When clicking on the last "edit your response" link, the system will lead you to the front page of the survey. Click on "Next" as many times as needed to get to the section you want to continue in. Once you have reached said section, please remember to change your answer to the question "Do you want to save your results and quit?" to "No", in order to be able to continue.

OPTR - 2021 Questionnaire 2 - Standards of Protection

Dear National Reporter,

I would like to thank you for your participation in the IBFD Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights (OPTR).

This form collects the information on developments occurred in 2021 regarding the implementation of 57 minimum standards and 44 best practices, distributed into 86 benchmarks, for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights as monitored by the OPTR.

We kindly ask you to provide an impartial, non-judgmental summary of events occurred in 2020 that in your opinion affect the level of compliance of a given of minimum standard/best practice in your country. These events may include, without limitation, legislation enacted, administrative rulings and/or circulars issued, case law and tax administration practices implemented, among others, as requested by this form.

You are also kindly required to assess whether the events you described represent either a step towards or a step away from the practical implementation of the given minimum standard/best practice in your country. Full instructions are provided below.

This form should be filled in as soon as any of the events mentioned above occurs and edited as many times as necessary to cover all relevant developments occurred in 2020, until no later than 14 January 2022. We appreciate very much your cooperation in this regard.

Feel free to contact us for any clarification you may need. We look forward to your valuable contribution to this remarkable project.

Kind regards,

Prof. Dr Carlos E. Weffe
Scientific Coordinator
IBFD Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights.

Instructions

1. Please answer all questions. The form will not allow you to continue/submit your responses until you have answered all questions.

2. All questions are two or three-tiered (namely, either with parts "MS" and/or "BP", and "S"). They comprise a minimum standard (MS) and /or a best practice (BP), and a "summary of relevant facts in 2021" (S), a space for providing a summarized account on facts (legislation enacted, administrative rulings, circulars, case law, tax administration practices), in a non-judgmental way.

3. Please Indicate, by clicking on the corresponding button, whether there was an improvement or a decrease of the level of compliance of the relevant standard/best practice in your country in 2021. If there were no changes, please indicate so by clicking on the corresponding button.

4. In ALL cases where an assessment of either improvement or decrease is reported, please refer the relevant novelties in the space provided under "summary of relevant facts in 2021", for each question. Please give a summarized account of facts (legislation enacted, administrative rulings, circulars, case law, tax administration practices), in a non-judgmental way. Specify if some content is no longer applicable, due to other developments. If applicable, indicate whether the fact reported is under a minimum standard or fully complies with the best practice. In case there is nothing to report for a given minimum standard/best practice, please answer "no changes".

5. If any, make additional, non-judgmental commentaries at the space provided under "summary of relevant facts in 2021".

6. In ALL cases back up your assertions with the relevant documentary materials. While it is not mandatory, a short summary of such materials in English is appreciated. You are welcomed to send us these materials to our email: optr@ibfd.org and c.weffe@ibfd.org.

7. When completed, please submit the survey.

8. Once you have submitted the survey, you will receive an email acknowledging your participation in the OPTR and providing a backup of your answers.

9. The email will also include an "edit your survey" link, in case you want to modify any of your answers. You will receive this email every time you submit partial responses.

10. An option to quit the survey and save your answers is provided at the end of each section. This survey has 12 sections, as many as those identified by Baker and Pistone in their 2015 IFA General Report.

11. If answering partially, please select "Yes" at the end of the section in which you are to submit your partial answers to the survey. To edit/complete your answers later, please use the "edit your response" link sent to your email after submitting this survey.

12. For editing your answers, please use the last "edit your response" link provided to you via email. Please bear in mind that this is the only way the system will acknowledge your previous answers. If you use a link other than the last one provided, some (or all) changes might not be retrieved by the system.

13. When clicking on the last "edit your response" link, the system will lead you to the front page of the survey. Click on "Next" as many times as needed to get to the section you want to continue in. Once you have reached said section, please remember to change your answer to the question "Do you want to save your results and quit?" to "No", in order to be able to continue.

HMRC have shown a lot of leeway in agreeing postponement of liability and in approving time-to-pay arrangements during the pandemic. According to the National Audit Office' Report on HMRC's annual report and accounts for 2020-21, levels of tax debt increased greatly during the pandemic to a peak of £67bn in August 2020, largely because of HMRC's decision to suspend collection of VAT and income tax self-assessment debts at the outset. This debt balance was down to £57.5 billion by the end of March 2021, including £3 billion of tax credits debt.

By March 2021, there were 864,000 time to pay arrangements in place, facilitated by a VAT New Payment Scheme and an enhanced Self-assessment Self-Serve Time to Pay facility. The average duration of repayment plans increased from around five months pre-pandemic to 12 months in July 2021.

A helpline was made available for businesses and self-employed individuals who needed help with payment of tax during the Covid-19 pandemic

While the Covid19 pandemic was at its peak, HMRC reduced the numbers of enquiries and other investigations commenced. Part of the reason for that was the requirement for HMRC officers who could do so to work from home, and also the deployment of considerable resources to designing and administering the many grants and loan schemes available to business to tide them over that period. Current signs are that investigative activity is again on the increase, with larger numbers of "nudge letters" being sent out, albeit to relatively narrow groups of taxpayers.

Clause 126 of the UK Finance Bill and the removal of taxpayer safeguards in third party information notices served on financial institutions

The UK Finance Bill has passed all its stages in the House of Commons and is proceeding in the House of Lords. Clause 126 of the Bill introduces the power for an authorised officer of HMRC to serve a notice requiring a financial institution under the Common Reporting Standard, or an issuer of credit cards, to provide information or produce documents concerning a named taxpayer if it is reasonably required for the purpose of checking the taxpayer's tax position, or collecting a tax debt owed by the taxpayer. The officer must reasonably believe that it would not be unduly onerous for the institution to provide the information or produce the document.

At present, third party notices are subject to certain taxpayer safeguards. Before issuing a third party notice, the officer must have either the consent of the taxpayer or the approval of the tribunal, save in certain exceptional circumstances. Where tribunal approval is sought, the tribunal must satisfy itself that certain conditions have been met concerning the seniority of the officer making the application and the justification for making it, and that the taxpayer has received a precursor letter. The tribunal may dispense with the requirements to name the taxpayer in the notice or to serve the taxpayer with a copy of the notice if satisfied that doing so would be prejudicial to the assessment or collection of tax. The third party may appeal against the notice on the grounds that complying with it or any requirement in it would be unduly onerous.

Those are the safeguards currently attaching to the service of third party notices. The effect of clause 126 when enacted will be to waive two of those safeguards in respect of notices designated as financial institution notices.

- First, there will be no requirement for an officer to seek the consent of the taxpayer or the approval of the tribunal before issuing a financial institution notice. The approval of the tribunal need only be applied for if it is desired to dispense with the requirement to name the taxpayer in the notice or give the taxpayer a copy of the notice and a summary of the reasons why the information and documents are required. The tribunal must grant such an application if satisfied that to comply would be prejudicial to the assessment or collection of tax.
- Secondly, the third party's right of appeal has been removed, replaced by a requirement only for a reasonable belief on the part of the officer that providing the information or producing the document would not be unduly onerous.

The UK government justifies the removal of the need for tribunal approval on the grounds that the time involved results in the UK failing to obtain information requested by overseas jurisdictions on a timely basis. The UK tax authority, HMRC, say it takes them an average of 12 months to obtain information when the international standard is six months. In particular, HMRC consider that the requirement of seeking the approval of a tribunal takes too long. In fact, according to evidence offered to a Parliamentary committee<sup>1</sup>, the tribunal approval process takes between four and six weeks now that third party information notice applications have moved to video hearings, whereas obtaining information about the taxpayer from the overseas jurisdiction takes over eight months on average. Whatever the justification, the measure has been widely criticised for removing the safeguards of requiring HMRC to obtain the consent of the taxpayer before issuing a third party
