

Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights

Below you will find a questionnaire filled in by Christine Speidel, Director at the Federal Tax Clinic, Villanova University and OPTR National Reporter of United States.

This set of questionnaires comprise the National Reporter's assessment on the country practice during 2021 in the protection of taxpayers' rights, and the level of fulfilment of the minimum standards and best practices on the practical protection of taxpayers' rights identified by Prof. Dr. Philip Baker and Prof. Dr. Pasquale Pistone at the 2015 IFA Congress on "The Practical Protection of Taxpayers' Fundamental Rights".

OPTR - 2021 Questionnaire 1 - Country Practice

Dear National Reporter,

I would like to thank you for your participation in the IBFD's Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights (OPTR).

This form collects the information on the practical implementation in domestic law of legal procedures, safeguards and guarantees associated with taxpayers' rights in 82 situations for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights, as monitored by the IBFD Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights.

We kindly ask you to assess assertively (yes/no) the level of practical implementation of said procedures, safeguards and guarantees associated with taxpayers' rights in your country. When answering, please bear in mind the actual practice regarding each situation, regardless of whether a given procedure, safeguard or guarantee has been formally adopted in your country.

We would be very grateful if you submit us this questionnaire, duly filled out, by no later than 14 January 2022.

Feel free to contact us for any clarification you may need. We look forward to your valuable contribution to this remarkable project.

Kind regards,

Prof. Dr. Carlos E. Weffe
Scientific Coordinator

Questionnaire 1 - Country Practice

Instructions:

1. Please answer all questions. The form will not allow you to continue/submit your responses until you have answered all questions.
2. For assertive questions, please answer with "yes" or "no" by clicking on the corresponding button.
3. For questions that require you to specify a period of time (namely, Q. 26 and Q. 45), please select the time applicable in your country to carry out the procedures indicated in the questions in practice, within the options provided.
4. For questions with more than one possible answer (namely, Q. 56), please check all necessary boxes to reflect better the practical situation of your country regarding the issue, by clicking on them.
5. When completed, please submit the survey.
6. Once you have submitted the survey, you will receive an email acknowledging your participation in the OPTR and providing a backup of your answers.

7. The email will also include an "edit your survey" link, in case you want to modify any of your answers. You will receive this email every time you submit partial responses.

8. An option to quit the survey and save your answers is provided at the end of each section.

9. If answering partially, please select "Yes" at the end of the section in which you are to submit your partial answers to the survey. To edit/complete your answers later, please use the "edit your response" link sent to your email after submitting this survey.

10. For editing your answers, please use the last "edit your response" link provided to you via email. Please bear in mind that this is the only way the system will acknowledge your previous answers. If you use a link other than the last one provided, some (or all) changes might not be retrieved by the system.

11. When clicking on the last "edit your response" link, the system will lead you to the front page of the survey. Click on "Next" as many times as needed to get to the section you want to continue in. Once you have reached said section, please remember to change your answer to the question "Do you want to save your results and quit?" to "No", in order to be able to continue.

OPTR - 2021 Questionnaire 2 - Standards of Protection

Dear National Reporter,

I would like to thank you for your participation in the IBFD Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights (OPTR).

This form collects the information on developments occurred in 2021 regarding the implementation of 57 minimum standards and 44 best practices, distributed into 86 benchmarks, for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights as monitored by the OPTR.

We kindly ask you to provide an impartial, non-judgmental summary of events occurred in 2020 that in your opinion affect the level of compliance of a given of minimum standard/best practice in your country. These events may include, without limitation, legislation enacted, administrative rulings and/or circulars issued, case law and tax administration practices implemented, among others, as requested by this form.

You are also kindly required to assess whether the events you described represent either a step towards or a step away from the practical implementation of the given minimum standard/best practice in your country. Full instructions are provided below.

This form should be filled in as soon as any of the events mentioned above occurs and edited as many times as necessary to cover all relevant developments occurred in 2020, until no later than 14 January 2022. We appreciate very much your cooperation in this regard.

Feel free to contact us for any clarification you may need. We look forward to your valuable contribution to this remarkable project.

Kind regards,

Prof. Dr Carlos E. Weffe

Instructions

1. Please answer all questions. The form will not allow you to continue/submit your responses until you have answered all questions.

2. All questions are two or three-tiered (namely, either with parts "MS" and/or "BP", and "S"). They comprise a minimum standard (MS) and /or a best practice (BP), and a "summary of relevant facts in 2021" (S), a space for providing a summarized account on facts (legislation enacted, administrative rulings, circulars, case law, tax administration practices), in a non-judgmental way.

3. Please Indicate, by clicking on the corresponding button, whether there was an improvement or a decrease of the level of compliance of the relevant standard/best practice in your country in 2021. If there were no changes, please indicate so by clicking on the corresponding button.

4. In ALL cases where an assessment of either improvement or decrease is reported, please refer the relevant novelties in the space provided under "summary of relevant facts in 2021", for each question. Please give a summarized account of facts (legislation enacted, administrative rulings, circulars, case law, tax administration practices), in a non-judgmental way. Specify if some content is no longer applicable, due to other developments. If applicable, indicate whether the fact reported is under a minimum standard or fully complies with the best practice. In case there is nothing to report for a given minimum standard/best practice, please answer "no changes".

5. If any, make additional, non-judgmental commentaries at the space provided under "summary of relevant facts in 2021".

6. In ALL cases back up your assertions with the relevant documentary materials. While it is not mandatory, a short summary of such materials in English is appreciated. You are welcomed to send us these materials to our email: optr@ibfd.org and c.weffe@ibfd.org.

7. When completed, please submit the survey.

8. Once you have submitted the survey, you will receive an email acknowledging your participation in the OPTR and providing a backup of your answers.

9. The email will also include an "edit your survey" link, in case you want to modify any of your answers. You will receive this email every time you submit partial responses.

10. An option to quit the survey and save your answers is provided at the end of each section. This survey has 12 sections, as many as those identified by Baker and Pistone in their 2015 IFA General Report.

11. If answering partially, please select "Yes" at the end of the section in which you are to submit your partial answers to the survey. To edit/complete your answers later, please use the "edit your response" link sent to your email after submitting this survey.

12. For editing your answers, please use the last "edit your response" link provided to you via email. Please bear in mind that this is the only way the system will acknowledge your previous answers. If you use a link other than the last one provided, some (or all) changes might not be retrieved by the system.

13. When clicking on the last "edit your response" link, the system will lead you to the front page of the survey. Click on "Next" as many times as needed to get to the section you want to continue in. Once you have reached said section, please remember to change your answer to the question "Do you want to save your results and quit?" to "No", in order to be able to continue.

The IRS launched the Secure Access Digital Identity (SADI) platform which meets updated digital identity guidelines. 2021 NTA ARC 117.

Re Questionnaire 1, Question 3 ("Q1,Q3"): Electronic communication with the tax authority remains limited but is improving. The IRS continued supporting online tools related to economic stimulus payments and launched tools related to the child tax credit. However, the utility of IRS online tools is limited, and they are not integrated with each other. 2021 NTA ARC 117. The IRS piloted a secure messaging system for taxpayer communications, but its digital communication tools are limited and not easy for taxpayers to use. 2021 NTA ARC 122-135.

In 2020 the coronavirus pandemic caused a shift away from this standard, which persisted in 2021. While IRS offices and phone lines re-opened, backlogs and social distancing requirements, combined with increased taxpayer assistance requests caused low levels of service which adversely impacted taxpayers. See 2021 NTA ARC 66-80. In-person help remained reduced, with many Taxpayer Assistance Centers going unstaffed for extended periods. Id. at 74. Free tax preparation help was limited during the 2021 filing season, with some nonprofit sites closed and others only offering online or drop-off service. In response to these events, the IRS partnered with professional and community organizations in efforts to help people claim stimulus payments and the advanced child tax credit. See, e.g., IR-2021-156 [<https://perma.cc/E7PJ-T979>].

The IRS publicized resources for visually impaired taxpayers and developed Form 9000 which taxpayers may use to elect post-filing notices in alternate formats beginning Jan. 31, 2022. Tax Tip 2021-154, Oct. 19, 2021.

The IRS continued to make progress on language access. Form 1040 was provided in Spanish for the first time for tax year 2020, and telephone interpretation was expanded to the main customer service line. CL-21-03, Jan. 21, 2021 [<https://perma.cc/NG6Z-S743>]. The IRS developed Schedule LEP for taxpayer to indicate language preferences; however, it is not yet issuing translated notices to taxpayers based on those preferences. TIGTA Rpt. 2022-40-008, Dec. 21, 2021.

Re Q1, Q21-22: Generally the principle ne bis in idem applies; however the tax authority may engage in repeat audits that it deems necessary. IRC 7605(b). Also, the IRS has several summary assessment and return review processes that appear to taxpayers and function substantially as correspondence audits, but that do not trigger the protections of IRC 7605(b). See taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov/news/nta-blog-real-vs-unreal-audits-and-why-this-distinction-matters. These include math error corrections and Automated Underreporter (document matching) notices, among others. These "unreal audits" constitute the majority of IRS compliance contacts.

The IRS exercised its discretion under IRC § 6402(a) to refrain from offsetting stimulus payments made in the form of 2020 recovery rebate credits. 2021 NTA ARC 9. The IRS amended its offer in compromise (OIC) policies to allow OIC applicants to seek an offset bypass refund due to financial hardship.

<https://www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov/news/nta-blog-irs-initiates-new-favorable-offer-in-compromise-policies/>. Statutory and administrative protections exist for taxpayers who would experience economic hardship due to tax collection actions. See, e.g., IRC § 6343(a)(1)(D); IRC §§ 6320(c), 6330(c)(2)(A)(ii); IRC § 7122(d); IRM 5.16.1 Currently Not Collectible. The IRS could improve its systemic protections and be more proactive in identifying taxpayers at risk of economic hardship. See 2022 NTA Purple Book 58-59.

For OICs accepted after Nov. 1, 2021, the IRS will not offset the taxpayer's refund for the year of acceptance. Also, the IRS will permit taxpayers with a pending OIC to request an offset bypass refund due to hardship. NTA Blog, <https://perma.cc/BKC3-79GD>. Both changes make the OIC program more accessible to taxpayers.

Under existing authority, IRC § 7508A, the tax authority postponed many time-sensitive acts due to natural disasters. <https://www.irs.gov/newsroom/tax-relief-in-disaster-situations>. In June, the authority issued final regulations interpreting IRC § 7508A(d) to provide that all extensions require the exercise of agency discretion; none are automatic. T.D. 9950, 86 Fed. Reg. 31,146. Congress then amended § 7508A(d). Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act, Pub. L. 117-58, Div. H, Tit. V §§ 80501, 80504 (Nov. 15, 2021). The taxing authority has not yet published guidance under the revised statute.
