

Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights

Below you will find a questionnaire filled in by Byron Thomas, MSc candidate at the University of Oxford and OPTR National Reporter of South Africa.

This set of questionnaires comprise the National Reporter's assessment on the country practice during 2018 in the protection of taxpayers' rights (Questionnaire # 1), and the level of fulfilment of the minimum standards and best practices on the practical protection of taxpayers' rights identified by Prof. Dr. Philip Baker and Prof. Dr. Pasquale Pistone at the 2015 IFA Congress on "The Practical Protection of Taxpayers' Fundamental Rights" (Questionnaire # 2). These questionnaires were filled in considering the following parameters:

1. For Questionnaire # 1, an assertive assessment (yes/no) was required on the effective implementation in domestic law of 82 legal safeguards, guarantees and procedures relevant in 12 specific areas for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights, as identified by Baker & Pistone in 2015. This line of questioning aims to get an overview of the state of protection of taxpayers' rights in the country in 2018.
2. For Questionnaire # 2, an impartial, non-judgmental evaluation was required on the developments, either of improvement or of decline, in the level of realisation of 57 minimum standards and 44 best practices, distributed into 87 benchmarks for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights. In this regard, a summary of events occurred in 2018 (legislation enacted, administrative rulings, circulars, case law, tax administration practices), that serve as grounds for each particular assessment, was also required.

76	If yes, is it legally binding?	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

9	Provide assistance for those who face difficulties in meeting compliance obligations, including those with disabilities, those located in remote areas, and those unable or unwilling to use electronic forms of communication		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

2. The issue of tax assessment

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
10		Establish a constructive dialogue between taxpayers and revenue authorities to ensure a fair assessment of taxes based on equality of arms	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
11		Use e-filing to speed up assessments and correction of errors, particularly systematic errors	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

3. Confidentiality

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
12	Provide a specific legal guarantee for confidentiality, with sanctions for officials who make unauthorised disclosures (and ensure sanctions are enforced).	Encrypt information held by a tax authority about taxpayers to the highest level attainable.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

13	Restrict access to data to those officials authorised to consult it. For encrypted data, use digital access codes.	Ensure an effective fire-wall to prevent unauthorised access to data held by revenue authorities.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
14	Audit data access periodically to identify cases of unauthorised access.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
15	Introduce administrative measures emphasizing confidentiality to tax officials.	Appoint data protection/privacy officers at senior level and local tax offices.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
16	Where pre/populated returns are used, these should be sent to taxpayers to correct errors.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
17	If a breach of confidentiality occurs, investigate fully with an appropriate level of seniority by independent persons (e.g. judges).		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
18	Introduce an offence for tax officials covering up unauthorised disclosure of confidential information.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
19	Exceptions to the general rule of confidentiality should be explicitly stated in the law, narrowly drafted and interpreted.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
20	If "naming and shaming" is employed, ensure adequate safeguards (e.g. judicial authorisation after proceedings involving the taxpayer).		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
21	No disclosure of confidential taxpayer information to politicians, or where it might be used for political purposes.	Parliamentary supervision of revenue authorities should involve independent officials, subject to confidentiality obligations, examining specific taxpayer data, and then reporting to Parliament.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
22	Freedom of information legislation may allow a taxpayer to access information about himself. However, access to information by third parties should be subject to stringent safeguards: only if an independent tribunal concludes that the public interest in disclosure outweighs the right of confidentiality, and only after a hearing where the taxpayer has an opportunity to be heard.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
23	If published, tax rulings should be anonymised and details that might identify the taxpayer removed.	Anonymise all tax judgments and remove details that might identify the taxpayer	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
24	Legal professional privilege should apply to tax advice.	Privilege from disclosure should apply to all tax advisors (not just lawyers) who supply similar advice to lawyers. Information imparted in circumstances of confidentiality may be privileged from disclosure.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
25	Where tax authorities enter premises which may contain privileged material, arrangements should be made (e.g. an independent lawyer) to protect that privilege.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

4. Normal audits

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
26	Audits should respect the following principles: (1) Proportionality. (2) Ne bis in idem (prohibition of double jeopardy). (3) Audi alteram partem (right to be heard before any decision is taken). (4) Nemo tenetur se detegere (principle against self/incrimination). Tax notices issued in violation of these principles should be null and void.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
27	In application of proportionality, tax authorities may only request for information that is strictly needed, not otherwise available, and must impose least burdensome impact on taxpayers.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

28		In application of ne bis in idem the taxpayer should only receive one audit per taxable period, except when facts that become known after the audit was completed.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
29	In application of audi alteram partem , taxpayers should have the right to attend all relevant meetings with tax authorities (assisted by advisors), the right to provide factual information, and to present their views before decisions of the tax authorities become final.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
30	In application of nemo tenetur , the right to remain silent should be respected in all tax audits.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
31		Tax audits should follow a pattern that is set out in published guidelines.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
32		A manual of good practice in tax audits should be established at the global level.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
33		Taxpayers should be entitled to request the start of a tax audit (to obtain finality).	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
34	Where tax authorities have resolved to start an audit, they should inform the taxpayer	Where tax authorities have resolved to start an audit, they should hold an initial meeting with the taxpayer in which they spell out the aims and procedure, together with timescale and targets. They should then disclose any additional evidence in their possession to the taxpayer.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
35	Taxpayers should be informed of information gathering from third parties.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
36		Reasonable time limits should be fixed for the conduct of audits.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
37	Technical assistance (including representation) should be available at all stages of the audit by experts selected by the taxpayer.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
38	The completion of a tax audit should be accurately reflected in a document, notified in its full text to the taxpayer.	The drafting of the final audit report should involve participation by the taxpayer, with the opportunity to correct inaccuracies of facts and to express the taxpayer's view.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
39		Following an audit, a report should be prepared even if the audit does not result in additional tax or refund.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

5. More intensive audits

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
40		More intensive audits should be limited to the extent strictly necessary to ensure an effective reaction to non-compliance.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	Part C of Chapter 5 of the Tax Administration Act No. 28 2011 provides for an 'inquiry' (an intensive audit of the taxpayer under the authority of a presiding officer) to be undertaken by the Commissioner of the South African Revenue Service. A judge, on application made ex parte , may grant an order to the Commissioner for an inquiry. In Commissioner of South African Revenue Service v Bravura Equity Services (Pty) Ltd and Others Case 17418/2016 the Court demonstrated robust application of these provisions: in addition to granting the taxpayer the right of response to the application made by the Commissioner, the a high practical burden of proof was required for the Commissioner.  Although not a shift in practice, this case demonstrates the protections offered to taxpayers under Part C of Chapter 5.
41	If there is point in an audit when it becomes foreseeable that the taxpayer may be liable for a penalty or criminal charge, from that time the taxpayer should have stronger protection of his right to silence, and statements from the taxpayer should not be used in the audit procedure.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

42	Entering premises or interception of communications should be authorised by the judiciary.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
43	Authorisation within the revenue authorities should only be in cases of urgency, and subsequently reported to the judiciary for ex post ratification.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
44	Inspection of the taxpayer's home should require authorisation by the judiciary and only be given in exceptional cases.	Where tax authorities intend to search the taxpayer's premises, the taxpayer should be informed and have an opportunity to appear before the judicial authority, subject to exception where there is evidence of danger that documents will be removed or destroyed.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
45		Access to bank information should require judicial authorisation.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
46		Authorisation by the judiciary should be necessary for interception of telephone communications and monitoring of internet access. Specialised offices within the judiciary should be established to supervise these actions.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
47	Seizure of documents should be subject to a requirement to give reasons why seizure is indispensable, and to fix the time when documents will be returned; seizure should be limited in time.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
48		If data are held on a computer hard drive, then a backup should be made in the presence of the taxpayer's advisors and the original left with the taxpayer.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
49	Where invasive techniques are applied, they should be limited in time to avoid disproportionate impact on taxpayers.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

6. Review and appeals

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
50		E-filing of requests for internal review to ensure the effective and speedy handling of the review process.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
51	The right to appeal should not depend upon prior exhaustion of administrative reviews.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
52		Reviews and appeals should not exceed two years.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
53	Audi alteram partem should apply in administrative reviews and judicial appeals.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
54	Where tax must be paid in whole or in part before and appeal, there must be an effective mechanism for providing interim suspension of payment.	An appeal should not require prior payment of tax in all cases.	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	Section 190 of the Tax Administration Act No. 28 of 2011 provides for the refund of tax overpaid once that refund has been subject to verification, inspection or audit. It also provides, however, for such a refund due to be set-off automatically against any outstanding tax debt of the taxpayer. In Top Watch (Pty) Ltd v Commissioner of South African Revenue Service 80 SATC 448 the Court held that held that: (1) The verification required is narrowly limited to the refund and not an examination of the tax affairs of the taxpayer, as contested by the Commissioner; (2) The refund cannot be set-off against a tax assessment that is disputed.  This judgment importantly raised the threshold on the ability to withhold refunds due as well as the meaning of 'tax debt' against which this may be offset.
55		The state should bear some or all of the costs of an appeal, whatever the outcome.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
56	Legal assistance should be provided for those taxpayers who cannot afford it.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
57	Taxpayers should have the right to request the exclusion of the public from a tax appeal hearing.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

58	Tax judgments should be published.		<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	The publication of tax cases on the South African Revenue Service website often lags the publications on platforms and in law reports not publicly available. Although difficult to evidence in any robust manner, this has been observed through commentary from various quarters of practice.

7. Criminal and administrative sanctions

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
59	Proportionality and ne bis in idem should apply to tax penalties.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
60		Where administrative and criminal sanctions may both apply, only one procedure and one sanction should be applied.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
61		Voluntary disclosure should lead to reduction of penalties.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
62	Sanctions should not be increased simply to encourage taxpayers to make voluntary disclosures.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

8. Enforcement of taxes

68	The requesting state should notify the taxpayer of cross-border requests for information, unless it has specific grounds for considering that this would prejudice the process of investigation. The requested state should inform the taxpayer unless it has a reasoned request from the requesting state that the taxpayer should not be informed on grounds that it would prejudice the investigation.	The taxpayer should be informed that a cross-border request for information is to be made.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
69		Where a cross-border request for information is made, the requested state should also be asked to supply information that assists the taxpayer.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
70		Provisions should be included in tax treaties setting specific conditions for exchange of information.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
71	If information is sought from third parties, judicial authorisation should be necessary.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
72		The taxpayer should be given access to information received by the requesting state.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

73		Information should not be supplied in response to a request where the originating cause was the acquisition of stolen or illegally obtained information.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
74		A requesting state should provide confirmation of confidentiality to the requested state.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
75	A state should not be entitled to receive information if it is unable to provide independent, verifiable evidence that it observes high standards of data protection.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
76		For automatic exchange of financial information, the taxpayer should be notified of the proposed exchange in sufficient time to exercise data protection rights.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
77		Taxpayers should have a right to request initiation of mutual agreement procedure.	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	The South African Revenue Service published its Guide on Mutual Agreement Procedures. This guide is an important step to enabling taxpayers' utilisation of Mutual Agreement Procedures where international tax disputes arise.

81	Taxpayers should be entitled to access all relevant legal material, comprising legislation, administrative regulations, rulings, manuals and other guidance.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
82	Where legal material is available primarily on the internet, arrangements should be made to provide it to those who do not have access to the internet.		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
83	Binding rulings should only be published in an anonymised form		<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

12. Institutional framework for protecting taxpayer's rights

#	Minimum standard	Best practice	Shift Away	Shift Towards	Summary of relevant facts in 2018
85	Adoption of a charter or statement of taxpayers' rights should be a minimum standard.	A separate statement of taxpayers' rights under audit should be provided to taxpayers who are audited.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	The South African Revenue Service published a new Service Charter outlining taxpayers rights, service timeframes and complaint escalation processes, including to the Tax Ombudsman. However, this Charter is not legally binding and prescribes certain 'obligations' be fulfilled by the taxpayer, which may be legally misleading to taxpayers. Accordingly, although conceptually important it is absent of certain key information.

86		A taxpayer advocate or ombudsman should be established to scrutinise the operations of the tax authority, handle specific complaints, and intervene in appropriate cases. Best practice is the establishment of a separate office within the tax authority but independent from normal operations of that authority.	○	○
87		The organisational structure for the protection of taxpayers' rights should operate at local level as well as nationally.	○	○
