

SUMMARY

The IBFD Advanced Professional Certificate in Transfer Pricing II (APCTP-II) is a unique qualification for tax professionals who wish to be able to manage transfer pricing issues, retain their competitive edge and ultimately be recognised globally as professional experts in this field. The programme is also a time and cost-effective solution for organizations that wish to equip their employees with expertise in transfer pricing from a reputable international organization.

OVERALL LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After following the certificate programme, a tax professional will be able to:

- Determine the transfer pricing aspects of business restructurings, digital transformations and determining an arm's length remuneration for business restructurings, as well as having a roadmap for dealing with the transfer pricing of business restructurings;
- Build and apply a TP controversy framework, detect TP risks and have an in-depth understanding of the various dispute mechanisms;
- Define a roadmap for developing efficient tax processes that are aligned from a transfer pricing, customs and VAT perspective and know how to deal with product pricing and periodic monitoring of adjustments from a TP perspective and the VAT treatment of TP adjustments; and
- Define the operational transfer pricing lifecycle, the different components of operational transfer pricing and the role of segmented P&Ls, and know how to set, monitor and adjust the transfer prices of, for example, tangible goods and services transactions.
