Below you will find a questionnaire filled in by Alberto Tarsitano, Director at Studio Tarsitano Gimenez, Lifrieri & Pampliega and OPTR National Reporter of Argentina.

This set of questionnaires comprises the National Reporter's assessment of the country's practice during 2023 in protecting taxpayers' rights and the level of fulfilment of the minimum standards and best practices on the practical protection of taxpayers' rights identified by Prof. Dr. Philip Baker and Prof. Dr. Pasquale Pistone at the 2015 IFA Congress on "The Practical Protection of Taxpayers' Fundamental Rights."

OPTR - 2023 Questionnaire 1 - Country Practice

Dear National Reporter,

I would like to thank you for your participation in the IBFD's Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights (OPTR).

This form collects the information on the practical implementation in domestic law of legal procedures, safeguards and guarantees associated with taxpayers' rights in 82 situations for the practical protection of taxpayers' rights, as monitored by the IBFD Observatory on the Protection of Taxpayers' Rights.

We kindly ask you to assess assertively (yes/no) the level of practical implementation of said procedures, safeguards and guarantees associated with taxpayers' rights in your country. When answering, please bear in mind the actual practice regarding each situation, regardless of whether a given procedure, safeguard or guarantee has been formally adopted in your country.

We would be very grateful if you submit us this questionnaire, duly filled out, by no later than 12 January 2024.

Feel free to contact us for any clarification you may need. We look forward to your valuable contribution to this remarkable project.

Kind regards,

Dr Alessandro Turina

At the end of December 2022, the AFIP repealed the Tax Planning Reporting Regime (General Resolution 3848) and in its place provided for the creation of the Complementary Information Regime for International Operations (RG 5305), much more attenuated and limited to international operations. RG 4838 was the subject of legal controversy because of the implications of professional liability for counsellors and lawyers, including the obligation to report to the client himself in conflict with the laws that preserve professional privilege. Several previous rulings had established the incompatibility of the whistleblowing regime for tax planning with professional secrecy. The practical validity of this precedent as of 2023 justifies its incorporation into this report.

FEDERAL PUBLIC REVENUE ADMINISTRATION

General Resolution 5391/2023

RESOG-2023-5391-E-AFIP-AFIP - Income Tax. Payment on account. Subjects listed in article 73 of the tax law with extraordinary income. Its implementation.

Buenos Aires, 07/20/2023

HAVING SEEN the Electronic File No. EX-2023-01631704- -AFIP-DVNRIS#SDGREC, and

CONSIDERING:

That from the implementation of various public policies aimed at consolidating economic recovery, the country began a stage of economic growth that was sustained throughout 2022 and continues into the present.

That, in this context, it has been observed that some economic actors have benefited by obtaining extraordinary income from the production and/or marketing of certain products as well as the provision of certain services.

That, in this situation, it is considered necessary for the State to implement tools that contribute to the progressive redistribution of income, in order to alleviate inequalities and reduce the negative impacts on the most vulnerable sectors of the population.

That, in this sense, it has been noted that, due to the application of income tax rules, in certain cases, the calculation of accumulated losses from previous years has produced the cancellation of the tax result, with the consequent lack of determination of the tax of one or more fiscal periods and the consequent elimination of the extraordinary impact of the current year.

That the circumstance that large companies with positive results do not pay income tax is a situation that has deserved the attention of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), in whose scope specific rules have been developed that address the problem, in a broad framework aimed at reforming the international tax system.

That, as a result, this Federal Administration considers it appropriate to establish an extraordinary interim payment of the income tax that must be paid by certain subjects who, not only have been benefited by the effects described, but also manifest a high taxable capacity.

That, likewise, this group of taxpayers represents a universe of less than ONE PERCENT (1%) of the total legal entities that file sworn returns for the aforementioned tax.

That the Legislation Directorate and the General Subdirectorates of Legal Affairs, Collection, Inspection and Systems and Telecommunications and the General Tax Directorate have taken the intervention that is their responsibility.

That this is issued in exercise of the powers conferred by article 21 of act No. 11,683, text ordered in 1998 and its modifications, and by article 7 of Decree No. 618 of July 10, 1997, its amendments and its complements.

Thus,

THE FEDERAL ADMINISTRATOR OF THE FEDERAL PUBLIC REVENUE ADMINISTRATION

RESOLVES:

SECTION 1.- Establish an interim payment of the income tax payable by the taxpayers and responsible persons listed in section 73 of the law of the aforementioned tax, text ordered in 2019 and its modifications that, in the sworn declaration of the fiscal period 2022 or 2023, as appropriate - in accordance with article 2 -, meet the following conditions:

1. They have reported a Tax Result - without applying the deduction of tax losses from previous years in accordance with the aforementioned tax law - that is equal to or greater than SIX HUNDRED MILLION PESOS ($ 600,000,000.-), and
2. have not determined tax.

Those legal entities that have a certificate of exemption from income tax - in force in the periods included in the first and second paragraphs of section 2 - are excluded from the aforementioned payment on account, in the terms of General Resolution No. 2,681. , its amendments and supplements.

SECTION 2.- For the purposes of determining the payment on account provided for in the previous article, the affected subjects must consider the sworn income tax return corresponding to the 2022 fiscal period, in the event that the closing of the fiscal year had operated between the months of August and December 2022, both inclusive.

Taxpayers whose year-ends would have operated between the months of January and July 2023, both inclusive, must consider the income tax return corresponding to the 2023 fiscal period.

The payment on account will be computable, in the terms of article 27 of Law No. 11,683, text ordered in 1998 and its modifications, in the fiscal period following the one taken as the basis of calculation, according to the following detail:

- a) With the closing of the fiscal year operated between the months of August and December 2022, both inclusive: fiscal period 2023.
- b) With closing of the fiscal year operated between the months of January and July 2023, both inclusive: fiscal period 2024.

SECTION 3.- The amount of the payment on account will be determined by applying FIFTEEN PERCENT (15%) on the Tax Result of the fiscal period immediately preceding the one to which the payment on account will be imputed, without considering the deduction of tax losses of previous years in the terms of the Income Tax Law, text ordered in 2019 and its modifications.

SECTION 4.- The entry of the payment on account and, where applicable, the compensatory interest and other accessories, will be made in accordance with the provisions of General Resolution No. 1,778, its amendments and its supplements, using the code of Tax-Concept-Subconcept: 10-183-183, and the corresponding number must be entered as a fee in accordance with the provisions of section 5 hereof.

Buenos Aires, 09/27/2023

HAVING SEEN the Electronic File No. EX-2023-02377595- -AFIP-SECCDECNRE#SDGREC, and

CONSIDERING:

That the National State has been implementing a series of measures aimed at consolidating the economic recovery, within the framework of which it has been observed that the economic actors dedicated to financial intermediation, as well as the subjects that fall into the category of Payment Service Providers - registered before the Central Bank of the Argentine Republic - have benefited from obtaining extraordinary income from the development of their activity.

That the obligations of the National State in economic matters require the adoption of tools that contribute to the progressive redistribution of income, in order to reduce inequalities and protect people and groups that present greater conditions of vulnerability.

That, in this situation, in order to sustain the redistributive impulse of fiscal policy and in the face of the manifestation of high contributory capacity of certain economic sectors, reasons of tax administration and equity make it appropriate to establish an extraordinary payment on account of the tax on profits that the subjects belonging to said sectors must earn.
