IBFD – IFA LATAM Webinars, News on International Taxation and Its Impact in Latin America

4, 11, 18 and 25 September

This is the seventh edition of the joint initiative between IBFD and IFA LATAM aiming at discussing trending topics in international taxation, particularly those with an impact on Latin America. This is done in the framework of the long-standing cooperation between IBFD and IFA LATAM, and the entire seminar will be conducted in Spanish

In association with:

The webinars are addressed to corporate officers, lawyers, tax advisors, members of tax authorities and of ministries of finance, judges, and members of academia. The speakers were selected from amongst the best experts in their respective fields. Attendants of the webinars are expected to get a clear picture on the latest developments in these areas, to develop an ability to anticipate risks for their clients and operations and to incorporate the knowledge gained in their own services. The webinars will also alert them to issues that they may face in the near future.
