IBFD Online Course: Residence

Learning objectives
- Understand the importance of the residence concept as a connecting factor between a taxpayer and a national tax system
- Appreciate the variety of ways in which countries define the residence connection for individuals and for companies
- Understand the concept of dual residence and possible consequences of being a dual resident
- Ability to determine residence for treaty purposes and apply the remaining treaty articles
- Awareness of more complex issues related to residence

Pre-requisites
This course provides an in-depth analysis of the concept of residence in the context of tax treaties. Participants should be familiar with the structure of tax treaties and their allocation rules in addition to the domestic law of at least one country, in particular as it relates to cross-border situations. Participants, particularly those with limited knowledge of tax treaties, are recommended to first complete the course ITA101 Fundamentals of Tax Treaties.

Study time
Audio lessons: 1 hour 45 mins
Self study: 9 hours 30 mins
Further reading (optional): 12 hours 30 mins
Extra: video interview with international tax expert

Advanced preparation
No advanced preparation is necessary. All required study material is provided in the online course.
