Learning objectives

- Understand the policy objectives of double tax relief (DTR)
- Know which sources of law on double tax relief may be relevant in a specific situation
- Be able to apply the various mechanisms of double tax relief
- Appreciate the many complexities of double tax relief and be able to anticipate the issues that may arise in specific situations
- Understand why double tax relief is often not fully effective in practice
- Be able to interpret and apply treaty provisions on double tax relief, in particular in the context of their interaction with domestic law

Pre-requisites

This course is highly recommended for participants who have a basic knowledge of DTR and who now need to develop a better understanding of this topic. It is also suitable for those with more experience who have already encountered specific issues with DTR and who wish to refresh or consolidate their understanding of the topic.

Study time

Audio lessons: 4 hours 45 mins
Self study: 5 hours 45 mins
Further reading (optional): 42 hours 30 mins
Extra: 15 min video interview with international tax expert

Advanced preparation

No advanced preparation is necessary, although participants with very little experience of international tax law would find it useful to take the course “Fundamentals of International Tax Law” beforehand. All required study material is provided in the online course.
