

IBFD Webinar

Current Issues in International Taxation (Global and EU Tax Update)

1 October 2019 – 15.00 (Amsterdam local time)

Summary

This 2-hour webinar discusses latest international tax developments with a focus on EU tax law.

Overview and learning objectives

During this webinar the participants will learn about the latest legislation, regulatory developments and case law with a focus on EU law in a practical manner. They will be updated on the implementation process of the OECD Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS) Project and the EU ATAD anti-tax avoidance package and will be provided with real-life visual examples of the possible impact on existing structures within the European Union.

Last but not least, the recently proposed solutions regarding the digital economy and possible global tax reforms will be discussed.

After watching this webinar, participants should have a clearer understanding of some of the key developments driving tax changes.

Field of study

Taxes

Who should participate

The webinar is suitable for all tax professionals, including accountants, in-house tax managers and directors, lawyers, advisers, policymakers and government officials who wish to have a better understanding of what is driving cross-border tax developments and what their practical implications are.

Course level and prerequisites

This is an upper intermediate-level webinar. Participants are expected to have a general understanding of international tax law.

Advance preparation

Participation in this webinar does not require any preparation.

1 October 2019 – 15.00 (Amsterdam local time)

Interactive webinar – “Group Internet Based” (live webinar only)

To safeguard the interactive nature of the webinar, a limited number of participants will be accepted. Early registration is therefore recommended. During live webinars, it is possible to interact with the presenters via a chat message function. Please note that questions are answered based on relevance, order of receipt and available time. Additionally, participants in the live webinar are invited to answer poll questions or to complete short tests. Participants who follow the live broadcast will also have access to the on-demand version for a further 12 months from the live date.

Date of live broadcast: 1 October 2019

On-demand webinar

On-demand webinars are intended for individual self-study only. Unlike live webinars, they are not open to interactive participation or assistance of a real-time instructor. Access to on-demand webinars is granted for a period of 12 months from the date of registration and/or live broadcast.

Continuing Professional Education

Many accrediting organizations will grant CPE credit(s) for an IBFD audio-visual broadcast. It is advisable, however, that you check with your accrediting body whether this applies only to live webinars or to on-demand webinars as well.

The International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD) is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have the final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.nasbaregistry.org. NASBA possible CPE credits - 1.5, (only applicable to live webinar).

Webinar registration details

If you have any questions regarding following the webinar, technical requirements, and payments and cancellations, please consult our FAQ.

Agenda

- ▶ An overview of the latest legislation, regulatory developments and case law with a focus on EU Law
- ▶ An update on the implementation of OECD BEPS and EU ATAD
- ▶ Current status of the proposed solutions regarding the digital economy and possible global tax reforms