

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Amsterdam, 10 October 2015

IBFD celebrates its 10th anniversary in Kuala Lumpur and its position at the forefront of international taxation

To mark a decade since the 2006 opening of our Asia-Pacific office in Kuala Lumpur, IBFD celebrates this achievement today by hosting an international tax event at the Mandarin Oriental hotel in the heart of Kuala Lumpur.

The Asia-Pacific region has become a powerful economic force over the past decade and is still growing rapidly. It remains a magnet for foreign investors, where governments actively strive to create conducive markets – offering competitive tax rates, ease of entry, reduced bureaucracy and numerous incentives. As existing markets grow and new markets emerge, the demand has accordingly risen for expertise in cross-border taxation. IBFD's Asia-Pacific office has used this opportunity to establish itself as a premium provider of international tax knowledge.

The past 10 years have seen many milestones in the numerous alliances and new projects initiated by IBFD throughout the Asian region, such as the establishment of the Asian Tax Authorities Symposium, the cooperation between Roy Rohatgi and IBFD to ensure the legacy of Roy Rohatgi's book Basic International Taxation, the initiative of the National Law School of India and IBFD to set up a training facility in international taxation and the long-standing working relationship between the Chinese State Administration of Taxation and IBFD.

Join us as we continue forging ahead, making our mark on the tax landscape for decades to come.
