FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Amsterdam, 1 April 2020

IBFD releases Covid-19 pandemic Tax News Service reports to community

As part of IBFD's social responsibility, all daily Tax News Service (TNS) reports related to the Covid-19 pandemic will be made available free of charge.

IBFD regards it as its duty to communicate the latest Covid-19 pandemic tax measures, so that tax experts, corporations and individuals can make informed decisions that impact everyday life.

"We take our responsibility towards society seriously and during these difficult times, IBFD remains committed to providing the best and most up-to-date tax information" states Jan Maarten Slagter, CEO IBFD.

He continues "That is why we will be providing our daily Tax News Service reports related to the Covid-19 pandemic free of charge, during the upcoming months. We hope this service will allow businesses and individuals to make informed economic decisions."

Free access available for all businesses and individuals

A selection of TNS reports will be made available to non-subscribers of IBFD's Tax Research Platform, through its corporate website, allowing them to follow the latest tax measures being implemented worldwide.

IBFD's website will be updated twice a day with the most relevant and informative reports. The first set of these will be published at 11 a.m. (CET) and the second at 4 p.m. (CET) every day. Non-subscribers who would like full access to all the daily Tax News Service Covid-19 pandemic reports can create a MY Account. This is free and provides access to additional complementary services.

Comprehensive tax information for subscribers

IBFD subscribers will be able to access all TNS reports through the TRP via the homepage. Here they will be given instructions on how to add a free text search and save option to their favourites. This will allow them to easily monitor the status of Covid-19 pandemic-related tax measures worldwide.
