
Contributors

Philip Baker is a barrister and QC practising from Field Court Tax Chambers in London (previously from Gray's Inn Tax Chambers). He was called to the bar in 1979, began practising in 1987 and took silk in 2002. He specializes in international tax issues, with a particular emphasis on double tax conventions and EU law and taxation. He taught law for 7 years at the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University. He was subsequently a visiting professorial fellow at Queen Mary University of London and is currently a senior associate fellow of the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, London University. He is the author of Double Taxation Conventions and International Tax Law and editor of International Tax Law Reports.

Tomas Balco serves currently as official at the Tax and Customs Section of the Slovak Ministry of Finance and is a faculty member of the College of Law at Comenius University in Bratislava, Slovak Republic. Previously, he served as Director of the Central Asian Tax Research Center (CATRC) at KIMEP University in Almaty, Kazakhstan, where he also established taxation as a field of academic study and research and served as Associate Professor since 2007. He has over 14 years of practical experience, both in public and private sectors, and, next to his academic work, he also dedicates his time to tax policy work with governments in Central Asia and Central and Eastern Europe. He served as Chair of the Tax Working Group of the American Chamber of Commerce in Kazakhstan and continues to serve as member of several subcommittees of the UN Committee of Experts on International Taxation. He is also a Chartered Certified Accountant – Fellow of ACCA (FCCA).

Cédric Ballenegger (Dr iur., attorney at law) is employed at the Swiss Federal Administrative Court since 2012. He serves as a law clerk in the Tax Chamber.

Martin Berglund is a researcher and lecturer at Uppsala University, Sweden. He holds an LLD (2013) and LLM (2007) from the same university. His doctoral thesis concerns the Swedish foreign tax credit method. He has also written a number of published articles on this topic. Currently, he is researching on the development of the Schumacker doctrine in EU law and the taxation of foundations and trusts.

Stefano Bernasconi (attorney at law) is employed at the Swiss Federal Administrative Court since 2011. He serves as a law clerk in the Tax Chamber.

Michael Beusch (PD Dr.iur., attorney at law) is a judge at the Swiss Federal Administrative Court, where he served as Vice-President for the term 2011/12. He is permanently lecturing on tax law at the University of Zurich (since 2001) and is co-editor of Commentaries on Swiss Tax Law. He has published numerous articles in various fields of (international) tax and (general) procedural law.

Yariv Brauner is a Professor of Law with the Levin College of Law at the University of Florida. He joined the Florida faculty in 2006 after teaching at NYU, Northwestern University and ASU. He has been a Visiting Professor or a guest speaker at various universities in the United States and abroad. He is the author of several articles published in professional journals and law reviews and a co-author of U.S. International Taxation – Cases and Materials (with Reuven S. Avi-Yonah and Diane M. Ring), now in its third edition.

José Manuel Calderón Carrero is a Professor of Tax Law at the School of Law of the University of La Coruña, Spain. He specializes in international and EU tax law and is an independent expert member of the Advisory Commission for the Application of the EU Arbitration Convention 90/436/EEC. He was also Visiting Scholar at the International Tax Program of Harvard Law School (1994 and 1997), a Visiting Researcher and contributor of the IBFD, and is the author of six books and more than 50 articles on international taxation and EU tax law.

Graeme Cooper is Professor of Taxation Law in the Faculty of Law, University of Sydney. He also teaches at the University of Virginia (USA) and has been a Visiting Professor at New York University Law School, Harvard Law School and KU Leuven. He is also a consultant to Greenwoods & Freehills, specialist tax advisers in Sydney. He worked in the Fiscal Affairs Division of the OECD in Paris and has worked as a consultant on projects for the IMF, the World Bank, several foreign governments and a number of NGOs. In Australia, he has worked as a consultant on projects for the Australian Treasury, the Board of Taxation, the Australian National Audit Office and the Australian Taxation Office.

Tsilly Dagan (LLB, Tel Aviv University, 1988; LLM (In Taxation), New York University, 1993; JSD, Tel Aviv University, 1999) is a Professor of Law at Bar-Ilan University specializing on domestic and international tax law and policy. She is the author of a book on Israeli law of international taxation as well as numerous articles. She has been a visiting assistant professor at the University of Michigan and at the University of Western Ontario, a scholar in residence at Columbia Law School and a member of the Group on Global Justice at the Institute of Advanced Studies, Jerusalem.

Luc De Broe is Professor of Tax Law at the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven. He was admitted to the Brussels Bar in 1982 and is a member of the International Fiscal Association (IFA). Since 2007, he is a member of the executive committee of IFA. He is a member of the Board of Editors of EC Tax Review.

César Augusto Domínguez Crespo is a Tax Law Professor at Universidad de Guanajuato, Mexico. He is also attorney-at-law and is currently legal counsel to the Budget Commission of Mexico's Federal House of Representatives. He holds a PhD (2006) from the Universidad Complutense and he is Head Editor of the Mexican Review of Public Finance and Tax Law.

David Duff teaches tax law and policy at the University of British Columbia Faculty of Law. He is a member and former Governor of the Canadian Tax Foundation, a member of the International Fiscal Association and an International Research Fellow of the Oxford University Centre for Business Taxation. He has published numerous articles on tax law and policy and is the lead author on a textbook/casebook on Canadian income tax law. He was cited in the Supreme Court of Canada's most recent GAAR decision in Cophorne Holdings Ltd. v. Canada, 2011 SCC 63.

Kasper Dziurdz is a Post-Doctoral Research Associate at the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law, WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) and recipient of an APART fellowship of the Austrian Academy of Science.

Søren Friis Hansen is a professor of international company law at the Copenhagen Business School. He was a member of the committee that prepared the Danish Companies Act of 2009. His research deals with Danish company and tax law as well as EU company and tax law.

Werner Haslehner is Associate Professor of European and International Tax Law at the Faculty of Law, Economics and Finance and the Director of the LL.M. Programme in European and International Tax Law at the University of Luxembourg. Prior to coming to Luxembourg in 2013, he taught and conducted research in international and European tax law at the London School of Economics and at Johannes Kepler University Linz. He is Deputy Member of the Academic Committee of the EATLP.

Marjaana Helminen works as a full-time tax professor at the University of Helsinki. She specializes in international taxation and EU tax law. She has also served as a justice at the Supreme Administrative Court of Finland and as a tax adviser at Loyens & Loeff in Amsterdam. She recently published a book on the Nordic Convention with IBFD.

Eric C.C.M. Kemmeren is Professor of International Tax Law and International Taxation at the Fiscal Institute Tilburg of Tilburg University, the Netherlands. He is also a member of the board of the European Tax College, deputy justice of the Arnhem Court of Appeals (Tax Division) and Of Counsel to Ernst & Young Belastingadviseurs LLP in Rotterdam.

Patrick Knörzer is assistant professor at the Chair for Tax Management and the Laws of International and Liechtenstein Taxation at the University of Liechtenstein. His research interests are lying on Austrian and Liechtenstein tax law.

Michael Lang is Head of the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law of WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) and Academic Director of both the LL.M. Program in International Tax Law and the doctoral program in international business taxation (DIBT) of this university. He is president of the Austrian Branch of the International Fiscal Association. He has been a visiting professor at Georgetown University, New York University, Sorbonne, Bocconi, Peking University (PKU) and University of New South Wales (Sydney) as well as other universities.

Guglielmo Maisto is a Professor of International and Comparative Tax Law at the Università Cattolica di Piacenza and Senior Partner of Maisto e Associati. He is president of the Italian Branch of the International Fiscal Association and a member of the Permanent Scientific Committee of IFA. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of IBFD and a member of the Advisory Board of the Master of Advanced Studies in International Taxation of Lausanne University.

Alexandre Maitrot de la Motte is a Professor at the Law Faculty of Université Paris-Est Créteil, where he is Vice-Dean in charge of Research and Director of a Master Program in Taxation (Fiscalité appliquée). His specializations are national and European direct taxation. He recently published a book concerning European tax law (Droit fiscal de l'Union européenne, Bruylant 2012). He is also Director of the Revue de Droit Fiscal (LexisNexis France).

Adolfo Martín Jiménez is Tax Law Professor, Jean Monnet Chair (EU Tax Law) and director of the Master in Tax Law, University of Cadiz, Spain. He specializes in international taxation and EU tax law and has authored or co-authored several books and more than 60 articles on the topic in Spanish or English. He has been a visiting professor at international universities and often participates in conferences on international and EU tax law. He also has broad experience in advising, as a consultant, public and private entities on international and EU tax law.

Danuše Nerudová is a professor of Mendel University in Brno. Since 2007, she has been appointed as the Head of Department of Accounting and Taxes and in 2009 was appointed as Associated Professor in Finance. She is a member of the Chamber of Certified Accountants and International Fiscal Association and associate member of EATLP. She has been Visiting Professor on International Taxation in Lyon and Bratislava. Since 2014 she is also Vice-President of the Czech IFA branch.

João Nogueira holds a PhD in Tax Law and is Adjunct of IBFD's Academic Chairman. He is a member of and collaborates actively with research centres of several EU countries. He has more than 10 years of experience in teaching at post-graduate level and is currently responsible for several master's courses on EU tax law, taught in different languages. His experience also comprises international missions in the realm of governmental tax consultancy. Dr Nogueira is a member of the EATLP, IFA, the executive board of IFA Portugal and the YIN IFA representative for Portugal.

Alexander Rust is Professor in Tax Law at the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law of WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business). He previously worked as Professor in Tax Law at the University of Luxembourg and director of the master program in European and International Tax Law, as acting assistant professor at New York University, as assistant professor at the University of Munich as well as an assistant judge and public prosecutor at the High Court of Munich, a law clerk at the Ministry of Finance and as a tax adviser in private practice.

Jacques Sasseville is Head of Tax Treaty Unit, Centre for Tax Policy and Administration at the OECD in Paris. In this capacity, he is involved in all the work related to the OECD Model Tax Convention.

Dikshit Prasad Sengupta joined the Indian Revenue Service in 1975 and retired as Chief Commissioner of Income Tax (Central), Delhi. He served as Joint Secretary in the Tax Policy and Legislation Division of the Ministry of Finance. He was also the former Joint Secretary of the Foreign Tax Division in the Ministry of Finance and was the Competent Authority for India. He is currently the Principal Consultant to the National Institute of Public Finance and Policy, New Delhi.

Daniël Smit is a tax researcher of Tilburg University. In addition, he works as a tax advisor at EY in Rotterdam. In June 2012, his PhD thesis was awarded with the prestigious European Academic Tax Thesis Award 2012. He has also acted as a speaker at various national and international seminars and conferences, and as a guest lecturer at various universities in the Netherlands and abroad.

Alfred Storck is Visiting Professor at the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law of WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) since 2009. He is Honorary Professor for Company Taxation and Managerial Finance at the Institute of Accounting, Controlling and Auditing (ACA), University of St. Gallen, Switzerland. Prior to 2009 he had various functions in a large multinational company headquartered in Switzerland as Head of Group Functions Taxes and Finance and Deputy CFO.

Danil Vladimirovich Vinnitskiy is Head of the Department of Tax and Financial Law at the Ural State Law University and Head of the Research Centre for Comparative and International Tax Law (Ekaterinburg, Russia). He has authored more than 200 publications and is the General Editor of the Russian Yearbook of International Tax Law. He is a member of the Academic Committee of the European Association of Tax Law Professors and of the Presidium of the International Association of Financial Law as well as a member of diverse scientific councils.

Martin Wenz is a full-time professor and holds the Chair for Tax Management and the Laws of International and Liechtenstein Taxation. In addition, he is Head of the Institute for Financial Services and Member of the Management Board at the University of Liechtenstein in Vaduz.

Billur Yalti is Tax Law Professor at the Faculty of Law of Koç University in Istanbul. She has focused her research on international and EC tax law and is currently working as a country correspondent for IBFD. She is a member of the European Association of Tax Law Professors and the founding president of the Turkish Branch of the International Fiscal Association.

Salome Zimmermann (Dr iur, attorney at law) is a judge at the Swiss Federal Administrative Court, where she serves as President to the Tax Chamber since 2011. Before becoming a tax judge she practised in business law in an international law firm and headed the law department of a Swiss non-governmental organization.