
Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	v
Foreword	vii
Part One Trends in the Taxation of Capital Gains on Shares under Domestic Law
Chapter 1: General Report	1
by Guglielmo Maisto and Jacques Malherbe
1.1. Introduction: Economic analysis of the tax treatment of capital gains	1
1.2. Meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	5
1.3. Meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	6
1.3.1. Definition of capital gains on shares	6
1.3.2. Income tax treatment of capital gains on shares	8
1.3.2.1. Participation exemption regimes	8
1.3.3. Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	19
1.3.3.1. Deductibility	19
1.3.3.2. Non-deductibility	19
1.3.3.3. Anti-abuse rules	20
1.4. Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	22
1.4.1. Tax consolidation regime	22
1.4.2. Other special tax regimes	22
1.4.2.1. Tonnage tax	22
1.4.2.2. Investment companies	22
1.5. Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes	23
1.5.1. VAT and capital gains on shares	23
1.5.2. Other indirect taxes	24
1.5.3. Transfer or registration taxes	24
1.6. Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border capital gains on shares under domestic law	26

Table of Contents

1.6.1.	CFC regimes	26
1.6.2.	Gains on shares in tax haven incorporated entities	28
1.6.3.	Capital losses derived by non-resident companies	29
1.7.	Selected issues on taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	29
1.8.	Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	31

Part Two Capital Gains on Shares and EU Law

Chapter 2: Taxation of Company on Capital Gains on Shares: The EU Treaty Freedoms 33 by Dennis Weber

2.1.	Introduction	33
2.2.	The EU Treaty freedoms versus capital gains on shares	33
2.3.	The case law of the ECJ	36
2.3.1.	Introduction: Lack of case law; foreign shareholding not to be taxed more onerously than domestic shareholdings	36
2.3.2.	The X and Y case: Anti-abuse measure concerning capital gains on shares too general	38
2.3.3.	Other case law that could be relevant to measures concerning avoidance of tax on capital gains	39
2.3.3.1.	Switch-over from exemption method to credit method	40
2.3.3.2.	Case law of the ECJ on anti-abuse provisions	41
2.3.3.3.	The SIAT case: More advantageous tax regime test: Case-by-case approach rejected; blacklist permitted	44
2.4.	Summary	51

Chapter 3: Capital Gains on Shares and EU Law: The Income Tax Directives 53 by Georg Kofler

3.1.	Introduction	53
3.2.	Parent-Subsidiary Directive	55

3.3.	Merger Directive	56
3.4.	Common Consolidated Corporate Tax Base	59
3.5.	Outlook	62

Part Three
 Definition and Qualification of Capital Gains on Shares under the OECD MC

Chapter 4:	Definitional Issues Related to Article 13 (Capital Gains)	65
	by Jacques Sasseville

4.1.	Introduction	65
4.2.	“Gains”	66
4.3.	“From the alienation” and “derived ... from the alienation”	67
4.4.	“Movable property forming part of the business property of a permanent establishment”	71
4.5.	“Deriving more than 50 per cent of their value directly or indirectly”	75
4.6.	Definitional issues in article 13(5) of the UN Model	77

Chapter 5:	Capital Gains and Qualification Conflicts under Article 23 OECD Model	81
	by Alexander Rust

5.1.	Introduction	81
5.2.	Sale of a partnership	82
5.2.1.	Case 1: The classical example of article 13(5) vs article 13(1) and (2)	82
	5.2.1.1. Problem	82
	5.2.1.2. The Partnership Report’s solution	83
5.2.2.	Case 2: Article 13(1) and (2) vs article 13(5)	84
5.2.3.	Evaluation of the Partnership Report’s solution	85
5.2.4.	Article 13(4): Partnerships with immovable property	87
	5.2.4.1. Case 3: Article 13(4) vs article 13(1)	90
	5.2.4.2. Case 4: Article 13(1) vs article 13(4)	91
	5.2.4.3. Case 5: Article 13(4) vs article 13(1), (2) and (5)	91
	5.2.4.4. Case 6: Article 13(1), (2) and (5) vs article 13(4)	93
	5.2.4.5. Article 13(4) and the 50% threshold	94

Table of Contents

5.2.4.5.1.	Case 7: Article 13(4) vs article 13(5)	95
5.2.4.5.2.	Case 8: Article 13(5) vs article 13(4)	96
5.2.4.6.	Combining qualification and valuation problems	96
5.2.4.6.1.	Case 9: Article 13(4) and (5) vs article 13(1) and (2)	96
5.2.5.	The UN Model	97
5.2.5.1.	Article 13(5)	97
5.2.5.2.	Case 11: Article 13(5) and (6) UN Model vs article 13(1) and (2) UN Model	99
5.2.5.3.	Case 12: Article 13(1) and (2) UN Model vs article 13(5) UN Model	100
5.3.	Redemptions	101
5.3.1.	General remarks	101
5.3.2.	Case 13: Redemptions covered by article 10(3)	102
5.3.3.	Case 14: Redemptions covered by article 13(5)	102
5.4.	Partnership is selling assets	103
5.4.1.	Transparency approach in the company state	104
5.4.1.1.	Case 15: Double treaty entitlement	104
5.4.1.1.1.	The facts	104
5.4.1.1.2.	The Partnership Report's solution	104
5.4.1.1.3.	Comments on the Partnership Report	105
5.4.1.2.	Case 16: Treaty entitlement dependent on liability to tax	107
5.4.1.2.1.	The Partnership Report's solution	107
5.4.1.2.2.	Comments on the Partnership Report	107
5.4.1.3.	Case 17: No treaty entitlement	108
5.4.1.3.1.	Solution of the Partnership Report	108
5.4.1.3.2.	Comments on the Partnership Report	108
5.4.1.4.	Case 18: Triple transparency approach	109
5.4.1.4.1.	The Partnership Report's Solution	109
5.4.1.4.2.	Comments on the Partnership Report	109

5.4.2.	The opaque approach in the company state	109
5.4.2.1.	Case 19: Double treaty entitlement	110
5.4.2.2.	Case 20: Triple opaque	111
5.4.2.3.	Case 21: No treaty entitlement	111
5.4.2.4.	Case 22: Dual transparency approach	112
Part Four Capital Gains on Shares under Reorganizations and the OECD MC
Chapter 6:	Capital Gains on Shares under Reorganizations	113
	by John M. Ulmer and Francesco Avella
6.1.	Introduction	113
6.2.	Tax treaties and reorganizations	117
6.3.	Income characterization	118
6.3.1.	“Gains” or “alienation”	121
6.3.2.	“Unless the context otherwise requires”	122
6.3.2.1.	Clues from the OECD Commentary as part of the context	124
6.3.3.	Article 3(2) should allow reference to domestic income tax law and make gains taxed as a consequence of corporate reorganizations fall within article 13 of the OECD Model	128
6.3.4.	An alternative view: The context requires the disregard of domestic income tax law meanings and terms like “gains” and “alienation” should be given independent treaty meanings	129
6.3.5.	Does the context require the disregard of domestic income tax law meanings and independent treaty meanings if double taxation still occurs?	130
6.3.6.	Can reorganizations fall within more than one distributive rule?	131
6.4.	Treaty solutions	134
6.4.1.	Alienation of property	136
6.4.2.	Electing a deemed sale to resolve timing mismatches	138
6.4.3.	Special treaty deferrals for corporate reorganizations: The Canadian experience	139
6.4.4.	Approaches used by other states	144

Part Five
Capital Gains on Shares Attributable to PE, Non-Discrimination and Anti-Abuse under the OECD MC
Chapter 7: Capital Gains: The Principle of Symmetry, the Internal Order of Article 13 and the Dynamic Interpretation of the Changes in the 2010 Commentary on “Forming Part” and “Effectively Connected”	149
by Hans Pijl
7.1. Introduction	149
7.1.1. The subjects of this contribution: Overview	149
7.1.2. “Forming part of the business property of a permanent establishment” and “effectively connected” and their underlying concept “attributable”	152
7.1.3. The 2010 Commentary explaining “forming part of the business property of a permanent establishment” and “effectively connected” as dynamically applicable	153
7.1.4. The principle of symmetry: Problems after the introduction of article 13(4) (2003)	154
7.2. History of the principle of symmetry and the genealogy of “forming part of the business property of” and “effectively connected with” a PE	155
7.2.1. The gradual development of the OECD Draft Convention (1955-1963)	155
7.2.1.1. Summary	155
7.2.2. Taxation of capital gains and taxation of capital in the list of taxes covered	156
7.2.2.1. Summary	156
7.2.3. Taxation of income and capital became separated in the international transport article	157
7.2.3.1. Summary	157
7.2.4. Capital gains in the immovable property article (1957)	157
7.2.4.1. Summary	157
7.2.5. Capital gains in the royalty article (1958) and the start of the general article for capital gains	157
7.2.5.1. Summary	157
7.2.6. The taxation of capital and the principle of symmetry as to income and capital	158

7.2.6.1.	The principle of symmetry	158
7.2.6.2.	The taxation of capital: The “fundamental principle” of symmetry	160
7.2.6.2.1.	1958-1959	160
7.2.6.2.2.	Summary	165
7.2.7.	“[E]ffectively connected” and similar criteria in the development of the PE exceptions of articles 10, 11 and 12	166
7.2.7.1.	Summary	166
7.2.7.2.	The interpretation of “effectively connected” as “forming part of the assets of the permanent establishment or otherwise effectively connected with that establishment”	168
7.2.7.2.1.	Summary	168
7.2.7.3.	The dividend PE exception	169
7.2.7.3.1.	Summary and connection with other sections	169
7.2.7.4.	The interest PE exception	169
7.2.7.4.1.	Summary	169
7.2.8.	The capital gains article	170
7.2.8.1.	Summary	170
7.3.	The principle of symmetry and article 13(4) of the OECD Model (2003-2012): Paragraph 4 of the Commentary on Article 13 and the missing hierarchy	170
7.3.1.	The symmetry between articles 6, 7 and 8 on the one hand and articles 13 and 22 on the other	170
7.3.2.	Article 13’s reliance on domestic law	174
7.3.3.	The lack of symmetry between articles 10, 11 and article 13(5)	174
7.4.	The problems caused by the introduction of article 13(4) in 2003	175
7.4.1.	The incorrect paragraph 4 of the Commentary on Article 13	175
7.4.2.	The lack of a tiebreaker for article 13(2), (3) and (4) of the OECD Model (2003-2012)	177
7.4.2.1.	The problem	177
7.4.2.2.	Examples	179
7.5.	The identical concept behind “forming part of the business property of a permanent establishment”, “effectively connected” and “attributable”	182

Table of Contents

7.5.1.	The Commentary expresses the equality of these terms	182
7.5.2.	No quantitative differences between article 7(1) and 13(2)	183
7.5.3.	Three terms and the same concept	185
7.5.4.	The 2010 additions	187
7.5.5.	History: The identical concepts behind the three terms	190
7.6.	The differences between the attribution rules of 1963-2008 and 2010	192
7.6.1.	The unnecessary problems created by the 2010 introduction	192
7.6.2.	The limited independence (1963-2008) and the unlimited independence (2010)	192
7.6.3.	The role of the PE Report (2008) for the interpretation of the traditional article 7 (1963-2008)	194
7.6.4.	The similarities in the Commentary (2008) and the PE Report (2008)	197
7.6.5.	The absorption of sections D-2 and D-3 of part I (PE Report 2008) into the Commentaries (2008): The methodology to attribute assets	200
7.6.6.	Comparison of the reference to the PE Report (2010) in the Commentary (2010) and the reference to the PE Report (2008) in the Commentary (2008)	202
7.6.7.	Conclusion	203
7.6.7.1.	Dynamic application of the new 2010 paragraphs to pre-2010 tax conventions	203
7.6.7.2.	The incorrect reasons to postpone the new paragraphs until 2010	204
7.7.	The introduction of the new paragraphs to the Commentary on Articles 10, 11, 12, 13, 21 and 22 in 2010, not 2008	204
7.7.1.	The drafting of the new paragraphs between 2005 and 2010	204
7.7.2.	The lack of a good reason to postpone the new paragraphs to 2010	208
7.7.3.	The new paragraphs' reference to the insufficiency of accounting records	209
7.7.4.	Dynamic application	210
7.8.	Article 13(2) and non-discrimination (article 24(3))	212
7.9.	Summary of findings and conclusions	215

Chapter 8: Transfer of Shares and Anti-Abuse under the OECD Model Tax Convention	219
by Richard Vann
8.1. Introduction	219
8.2. Concept of abuse in taxation	221
8.3. History of capital gains provisions in treaties	223
8.3.1. League of Nations	222
8.3.2. OEEC/OECD to 1963	226
8.3.2.1. Early Working Parties	227
8.3.2.2. Royalties, immovable property, dividends	229
8.3.2.3. Capital gains and WP19	231
8.3.2.4. Capital gains on shares and abuse	234
8.3.2.5. Subsequent OECD developments	239
8.3.3. UN to 1980	240
8.4. Conclusion: Policy incoherence rules	243
Chapter 9: Taxing Indirect Transfers: Rules and Doctrines	247
by Wei Cui
9.1. Introduction	247
9.2. The “look-through” approach	250
9.2.1. When may offshore entities be disregarded in taxing indirect transfers?	251
9.2.2. The consequences of disregarding offshore entities	254
9.2.3. Uncoupling the look-through approach from anti-avoidance rules	256
9.3. The “source” approach	258
9.3.1. Ex ante rules and the irrelevance of tax avoidance motives	258
9.3.2. Multiple taxation and other problems under the source approach	260
9.3.3. An ex ante look-through approach?	262
9.4. Securing compliance	263
9.4.1. Traditional issues in securing compliance	263
9.4.2. Special issues in enforcing a tax on indirect transfers imposed on an anti-avoidance basis	266
9.5. Conclusion	268

Part Six
Country Reports

Chapter 10: Australia	271
by Nikki Teo
10.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	271
10.1.1. Non-tax law meaning of capital gains on shares (of companies)	271
10.1.2. Criteria for the existence of capital gains (liquidation, buy-backs, stock loans, etc.)	274
10.1.3. Capital gains on shares of companies vs gains on interest in other entities	276
10.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	279
10.2.1. Introduction to the Australian corporate income tax system and capital gains tax (CGT) regime	279
10.2.1.1. Key aspects of the Australian corporate income tax system relevant to shares	279
10.2.1.2. Background to the categories of assessable income	283
10.2.1.3. The CGT regime	285
10.2.2. Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	287
10.2.2.1. Capital gains on shares vs other categories of income	287
10.2.2.2. Capital gains on sales of shares vs gains arising from other transactions	293
10.2.2.3. Liquidation, partial liquidation, treasury shares and distribution of share premium or other reserves that are not formed with profits	295
10.2.2.4. Business restructurings involving shareholder companies: Domestic, cross-border and foreign	298
10.2.2.5. Capital gains on shares vs capital gains on interest in other entities	305
10.2.2.6. Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-resident companies	309
10.2.3. Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	310

10.2.3.1.	Determination of the taxable gain	310
10.2.3.2.	Participation exemption regime	313
10.2.3.3.	Other special regimes	316
10.2.3.4.	Tax regime of capital gains on shares vs tax regime of dividends	317
10.2.3.5.	Capital gains on shares under IFRS accounting	318
10.2.3.6.	Gains derived by resident companies vs gains derived by non-resident companies	319
10.2.3.7.	Anti-abuse rules	319
10.2.4.	Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	322
10.2.4.1.	Capital losses on disposal of shares	322
10.2.4.2.	Anti-abuse rules regarding capital losses on shares	323
10.2.4.3.	Capital losses under IFRS accounting	325
10.2.4.4.	Capital losses derived by resident companies vs capital losses derived by non-resident companies	325
10.3.	Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	325
10.3.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of tax consolidation regime	325
10.3.2.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	327
10.3.3.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of change of the legal form of the subsidiary/investee company	331
10.4.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes (VAT, transfer tax, etc.) and procedural issues	333
10.4.1.	Capital gains on shares, the goods and services tax (GST) and other indirect taxes	333
10.4.1.1.	Capital gains on shares and the GST	333
10.4.1.2.	Capital gains on shares and other indirect taxes other than VAT	346
10.4.2.	Procedural issues relating to groups of companies and taxation of capital gains on shares	347
10.4.2.1.	Application of anti-evasion or anti-abuse rules	347
10.4.2.2.	Formalities to benefit from participation exemption or other tax regimes	347

Table of Contents

10.4.2.3. Withholding obligations and/or substitute tax issues	350
10.5. Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	352
10.5.1. Capital gains on shares taxation under CFC regimes	352
10.5.1.1. Capital gains on shares derived by CFCs	352
10.5.1.2. Capital gains derived by a controlling shareholder on shares in a CFC	355
10.5.2. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	356
10.5.2.1. Rules targeted to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	356
10.5.2.2. Open issues and burden of proof	356
10.5.3. Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	357
10.5.3.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	357
10.5.3.2. Notion of capital gains on shares when derived by non-resident taxpayers	359
10.5.3.3. Taxation of capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers through PEs	360
10.5.3.4. Capital gains on shares: Elements of “business income” vs different elements of income	360
10.6. Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	361
10.6.1. Relationship between domestic law notion and treaty law notion of capital gains	361
10.6.2. Significant departures from the OECD Model found in the treaty network	362
10.6.2.1. Pre-CGT treaties	363
10.6.2.2. Post-CGT but pre-division 855 treaties	365
10.6.2.3. Post division 855 DTAs	366
10.6.3. Tax treaty anti-abuse rules and capital gains on shares	366
10.6.4. Domestic anti-abuse rules or doctrines when tax treaties are involved	368

Chapter 11: Austria	371
by Elisabeth Hütter
11.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares”	371
11.1.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	371
11.1.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	371
11.1.2.1. The meaning of “capital gains” under the Income Tax Act	371
11.1.2.2. Capital gains with respect to the Reorganization Tax Act	372
11.2. Income tax treatment of capital gains on shares	373
11.2.1. General remarks	373
11.2.2. Income tax treatment of capital gains derived by resident partnerships on shares in a partnership	373
11.2.2.1. Determination of capital gains with respect to shares in a partnership	374
11.2.2.2. Compensation with losses of other business activities or losses of non-business-activities and loss carry-forward	374
11.2.2.3. Preferential treatment of capital gains	375
11.2.3. Income tax treatment of resident partnerships deriving capital gains of shares in a corporation	376
11.2.3.1. General remarks	376
11.2.3.2. Determination of capital gains with respect to shares in a corporation	377
11.2.3.3. Tax rate with respect to capital gains of a partnership on shares in a corporation	377
11.2.3.4. Loss compensation	377
11.2.4. Income tax treatment of capital gains of resident corporations on shares in a partnership	378
11.2.5. Income tax treatment of capital gains of resident corporations on shares in a corporation	378
11.2.5.1. Domestic participation exemption	378
11.2.5.2. International participation exemption	379
11.3. Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	382
11.3.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of a tax consolidation regime	382
11.3.1.1. The Austrian group taxation regime – An overview	382

Table of Contents

11.3.1.2.	Taxation of capital gains or losses within the Austrian group taxation regime	383
11.3.2.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	384
11.4.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes (VAT, transfer tax, etc.) and procedural issues	385
11.4.1.	Influence of ECJ jurisprudence and selected issues of VAT taxation of capital gains on shares	385
11.4.2.	AB SKF (Case C-29/08)	387
11.4.3.	Indirect taxes other than VAT applicable on capital gains on shares	388
11.5.	Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	389
11.5.1.	Income tax treatment of capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	389
11.5.1.1.	Income tax treatment of capital gains derived by a non-resident partnership	389
11.5.1.2.	Income tax treatment of capital gains derived by non-resident corporation	390
11.5.2.	Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	391
11.6.	Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	393
11.6.1.	Relationship between domestic law notion and treaty law notion of capital gains	393
11.6.2.	Significant departures from the OECD Model found in the treaty network	393
11.6.2.1.	Source taxation regarding the alienation of shares	393
11.6.2.2.	Special provisions regarding exit taxation	394
11.6.2.3.	Application of the credit method when alienating shares in immovable property companies	394
Chapter 12: Belgium		395
	by Edouard-Jean Navez
12.1.	Introduction	395
12.2.	The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	398

12.3. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	401
12.3.1. Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	401
12.3.1.1. The meaning of “capital gain on shares” in the ITC	401
12.3.1.2. Capital gain on shares vs “asymmetrical dividends”	405
12.3.1.2.1. The total distribution of the corporate net assets of a company further to its dissolution or any other event	406
12.3.1.2.2. Fiction assimilating certain operations to a liquidation	407
12.3.1.2.3. Partial distribution of the assets	408
12.3.1.2.4. Redemption of shares	409
12.3.1.3. Capital gains realized by legal entities vs capital gains in other companies having no “fiscal” personality	411
12.3.1.3.1. Belgian transparent companies	412
12.3.1.3.2. Foreign transparent companies	414
12.3.1.3.3. Belgian translucent companies	416
12.3.1.3.4. Foreign translucent companies	417
12.3.1.4. Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-resident companies	417
12.3.2. Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	418
12.3.2.1. General rule: Exemption of capital gains realized on shares of Belgian or foreign companies	418
12.3.2.2. Computation of the tax-exempted portion of the capital gain	421
12.3.2.2.1. Overview of the general rule	421
12.3.2.2.2. Realization expenses and costs	421
12.3.2.3. Revaluation gains	422
12.3.2.4. Overview of (certain) specific circumstances	422
12.3.2.5. New exclusion: Trading companies	424
12.3.2.6. Tax regime of capital gains on shares vs tax regime of dividends	425
12.3.2.6.1. The participation exemption regime	425

Table of Contents

	12.3.2.6.2. Difficulties arising from the links between the capital gains and the dividends tax regimes	427
	12.3.3. Capital losses on shares	428
12.4.	Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	429
12.4.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares under tax consolidation	429
12.4.2.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	429
12.4.3.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of change of the legal form of the subsidiary/investee company	430
12.5.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes and procedural issues	432
12.5.1.	Deductibility of VAT on costs of sale or acquisition of participations	432
12.5.2.	Capital gains on shares and other indirect taxes	435
	12.5.2.1. Registration duties	435
	12.5.2.2. Taxation of stock-market transactions	436
	12.5.2.3. Tax on bearer share conversions	437
12.5.3.	Procedural issues relating to capital gains on shares	437
	12.5.3.1. The lack of recognition of groups of companies under Belgian law	437
	12.5.3.2. Overview of the main anti-avoidance provisions applicable to holding companies	438
	12.5.3.2.1. The “free choice of the least taxed way” principle vs general anti-avoidance provision	438
	12.5.3.2.2. Adjustment for abnormal or benevolent advantages	441
	12.5.3.2.3. Specific transfer pricing rule	442
	12.5.3.3. The ruling procedure	443
12.6.	Selection of issues regarding the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	444
12.6.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares under CFC regimes	444
12.6.2.	Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	445
12.6.3.	Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares of companies that do not satisfy certain business tests	446

12.6.3.1. The disregarding of asset transfers to low-tax jurisdictions	446
12.6.3.2. Anti-avoidance provision relating to corporate restructuring operations	447
12.6.3.3. Anti-abuse provision relating to abnormal or benevolent advantages received by a Belgian company	447
12.6.4. Issues related to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	448
12.7. Selection of issues regarding the taxation of capital gains on shares under EU Law	449
12.7.1. Impact of EU principles of tax neutrality in cross-border situations	449
12.7.2. EU principles of tax neutrality in respect of capital losses on shares	452
12.7.3. Debate on the need to have an EU directive on capital gains on shares	452
12.7.4. Capital gains on shares and third countries	453
12.8. Selected issues regarding taxation of capital gains on shares under tax treaties	453
12.8.1. Relationship between concepts under domestic and under treaty law regarding capital gains	453
12.8.2. Tax treaty anti-abuse rules	457
12.8.3. Domestic anti-abuse rules when tax treaties are involved	459
12.8.4. Tax treaties and business restructuring	461
 Chapter 13: Canada	 463
by Elie S. Roth
13.1. Capital gains on shares under Canadian law	463
13.2. The meaning of capital gains on shares in Canadian tax law	465
13.2.1. Definition of capital gains on shares for purposes of the ITA	465
13.2.1.1. Interrelationship with other categories of income	465
13.2.1.2. Meaning of disposition	469
13.2.1.3. Capital transactions involving the issuer corporation	472
13.2.1.4. Share options and derivatives	474
13.2.1.5. Business restructurings involving shareholder companies	478

Table of Contents

13.2.1.6.	Source of capital gains realized by non-resident shareholders	486
13.2.2.	Taxation of capital gains on shares	486
13.2.2.1.	Computation of gain	486
13.2.2.2.	Participation exemption	488
13.2.2.3.	Taxation of dividends	488
13.2.2.4.	Anti-avoidance rules	489
13.2.3.	Capital losses on shares	493
13.2.3.1.	Capital losses on disposition of shares	493
13.2.3.2.	Anti-avoidance rules applicable to capital losses on shares	494
13.2.3.3.	Capital losses realized by non-resident corporations	496
13.3.	Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	497
13.3.1.	Group consolidation	497
13.3.2.	Change in legal form of subsidiary or partnership	498
13.4.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes and procedural issues	503
13.4.1.	Indirect taxation and capital gains on shares	503
13.4.2.	Procedural issues relating to groups of companies and taxation of capital gains on shares	504
13.4.2.1.	Application of anti-avoidance rules	504
13.4.2.1.1.	Tax-deferred transactions involving non-affiliated corporations	504
13.4.2.1.2.	Foreign affiliate rules	504
13.4.2.2.	Section 116 withholding and clearance certificate requirements	505
13.4.2.2.1.	Vendor notification requirements	506
13.4.2.2.2.	Purchaser withholding and remittance obligations	507
13.4.2.2.3.	Excluded property	508
13.5.	Taxation of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	509
13.5.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares under the Canadian foreign affiliate rules	509
13.5.1.1.	Capital gains realized by foreign affiliates and controlled foreign affiliates	509
13.5.1.2.	Capital gains realized by Canadian parent corporation on the disposition of shares of a controlled foreign affiliate	514

13.5.2. Anti-avoidance provisions	516
13.5.2.1. Offshore investment fund property rules	516
13.5.2.2. Non-qualifying business test for excluded property status	517
13.5.2.3. Burden of proof	520
13.5.3. Taxation of capital gains on shares realized by non-residents of Canada	521
13.5.3.1. Capital gains on shares realized by non-residents	521
13.5.3.2. Computation of capital gains	522
13.5.3.3. Capital gains derived by non-residents through a permanent establishment in Canada	523
13.5.3.4. Foreign affiliate dumping transactions	524
13.6. Taxation of capital gains on shares under Canadian tax treaties	526
13.6.1. Relationship between domestic law and the gains article in Canadian tax treaty	526
13.6.2. Procedural aspects of claiming treaty relief	527
13.6.3. Departures from OECD Model in Canadian treaty network	527
13.6.4. Beneficial ownership and capital gains on shares	532
13.6.5. Tax treaty anti-abuse rules and capital gains on shares	535
13.6.6. Domestic anti-abuse rules or doctrines applicable in the tax treaty context	535
13.6.7. Tax treaties and business restructurings	537
13.6.8. Tax treaty non-discrimination	541
 Chapter 14: China	 543
by Dongmei Qiu
14.1. The meaning of capital gains on shares under domestic non-tax law	543
14.1.1. General remarks	543
14.1.2. Shares of the company	543
14.1.3. Transfer or disposition of ownership in shares	545
14.1.3.1. Shares buy-back	545
14.1.3.2. Liquidation of a company	546
14.1.3.3. Capital contribution with shares	546
14.1.3.4. Stock loans	547
14.1.4. Shares of companies vs interest in partnership	547

Table of Contents

14.2. The meaning of capital gains on shares under domestic tax law	548
14.2.1. Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories of income	548
14.2.1.1. Historical background and general remarks	548
14.2.1.2. Transactions leading to capital gains on shares	549
14.2.1.2.1. Liquidation and withdrawal or reduction of investment	549
14.2.1.2.2. Business reorganizations	550
14.2.1.3. Capital gains on interest in other entities	553
14.2.1.4. Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-resident companies	554
14.2.1.4.1. Shenyang ruling (2011)	556
14.2.2. Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	557
14.2.2.1. Determination of taxable gains	557
14.2.2.2. Tax exemption on capital gains on shares	559
14.2.2.3. Tax regime of capital gains on shares vs tax regime of dividends	560
14.2.2.3.1. Is the participation exemption applicable?	560
14.2.2.3.2. Income arising from stock in a Chinese company listed in securities markets derived by non-residents	560
14.2.2.4. Gains derived by resident companies vs gains derived by non-resident companies	562
14.2.3. Capital losses on shares	563
14.2.3.1. Deductibility of capital losses on shares	563
14.2.3.2. Capital losses derived by non-resident companies	564
14.3. Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	565
14.3.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of tax consolidation regime	565
14.3.2. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	565
14.3.3. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of the legal form of the subsidiary/investee company	567
14.4. Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes and procedural issues	567
14.4.1. Indirect tax	567

14.4.1.1. No VAT or business tax	567
14.4.1.2. Land appreciation duty	567
14.4.1.3. Stamp duty	568
14.4.1.4. Deeds tax	568
14.4.2. Procedural issues relating to groups of companies and taxation of capital gains on shares	568
14.4.2.1. Application of anti-abuse rules	569
14.4.2.2. Withholding obligations	570
14.4.2.2.1. When gains are derived by a non-resident company on transfer of shares of a company incorporated in China	571
14.4.2.2.2. When a Chinese resident company established overseas (CRCO) is involved	573
14.5. Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	574
14.5.1. Capital gains on shares taxation under CFC regimes	574
14.5.2. No domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on certain types of shares	575
14.5.3. Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	575
14.5.3.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	575
14.5.3.1.1. When a non-resident transfers shares of a company incorporated in China	576
14.5.3.1.2. When a non-resident transfers shares of the CRCO	576
14.5.3.1.3. When a non-resident transfers shares of an offshore holding company which directly or indirectly owns shares in a Chinese resident company	577
14.5.3.1.4. When a foreign company transfers an interest in a Chinese partnership	577
14.5.3.2. Notion of capital gains on shares when derived by non-resident taxpayers	578

Table of Contents

14.5.3.3.	Taxation of capital gains on shares derived by non-resident companies through an establishment	579
14.6.	Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	581
14.6.1.	Relationship between domestic law notion and treaty law notion of capital gains	581
14.6.2.	Significant departures from the OECD Model	581
14.6.2.1.	Deviation One: Incorporation of a provision analogous to article 13(5) of the 2001 UN Model	583
14.6.2.2.	Deviation Two: Incorporation of a provision analogous to article 13(5) of the 2011 UN Model	584
14.6.2.3.	Deviation Three: Taxation by the state of source without shareholding threshold	585
14.6.3.	Treaty benefits in cases of favourable tax regimes applicable to the subsidiary/investee company	587
14.6.4.	Beneficial ownership and conduit companies	587
14.6.4.1.	Fujian ruling	588
14.6.4.2.	Shenzhen ruling	589
14.6.5.	Liability to tax	590
14.6.5.1.	Xinjiang ruling	590
14.6.5.2.	Xuzhou ruling	591
14.6.5.3.	Remarks on recent developments under capital gains article in the China–Barbados DTA (2010)	592
14.6.6.	Tax treaty anti-abuse rules	593
14.6.6.1.	General anti-avoidance rule (GAAR)	593
14.6.6.2.	LOB clauses	594
14.6.7.	Domestic anti-abuse rules or doctrines when tax treaties are involved	594
14.6.7.1.	Chongqing ruling	594
14.6.8.	Business restructurings	595
14.6.9.	Non-discrimination under tax treaties	596
14.6.10.	Procedural aspects of claiming treaty reliefs	596
Chapter 15: Finland		599
	by Marjaana Helminen and Reijo Knuutinen
15.1.	The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	599

15.1.1. Introduction	599
15.1.2. Non-tax law meaning of capital gains on shares	603
15.1.3. Liquidation, buy-backs, stock loans, etc.	605
15.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	606
15.2.1. Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	606
15.2.1.1. Introduction	606
15.2.1.2. Capital gains on shares vs other categories of income	607
15.2.1.3. Capital gains on sales of shares vs gains arising from other transactions	613
15.2.1.4. Business restructurings involving shareholder companies: Domestic, cross-border and foreign	619
15.2.1.5. Capital gains on shares vs capital gains on interest in other entities	620
15.2.1.6. Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-resident companies	622
15.2.2. Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	623
15.2.2.1. Determination of the taxable gain	623
15.2.2.2. Participation exemption regime regarding fixed assets	624
15.2.2.3. Other special regimes	629
15.2.2.4. Tax regime of capital gains on shares vs tax regime of dividends	630
15.2.2.5. Capital gains on shares under IFRS accounting	630
15.2.2.6. Anti-abuse rules	630
15.2.3. Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	631
15.2.3.1. Capital losses on disposal of shares	631
15.2.3.2. Anti-abuse rules regarding capital losses on shares	634
15.3. Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	634
15.3.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of tax consolidation regime	634
15.3.2. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	635

Table of Contents

15.3.3. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of change of the legal form of the subsidiary/investee company	636
15.4. Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes (VAT, transfer tax, etc.) and procedural issues	637
15.4.1. Capital gains on shares, VAT and other indirect taxes	637
15.4.1.1. Influence from ECJ jurisprudence	637
15.4.1.2. Indirect taxes other than VAT applicable on capital gains on shares	638
15.4.2. Procedural issues relating to groups of companies and taxation of capital gains on shares	639
15.4.2.1. Application of anti-evasion or anti-abuse rules	639
15.5. Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	640
15.5.1. Capital gains on shares taxation under CFC regimes	640
15.5.2. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	642
15.5.3. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares of companies that do not satisfy certain business tests	643
15.5.4. Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	643
15.6. Selected issues of taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	645
15.7. Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	651
Chapter 16: France	655
by Mathieu Daude and Clément Rozant
16.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	655
16.1.1. Non-tax law meaning of capital gains on shares	655
16.1.2. Liquidation, buy-backs, stock-loans, etc.	656
16.1.3. Capital gains on shares of companies vs gains on interest in other entities	657
16.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	658

16.2.1.	Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	658
16.2.1.1.	Capital gains on shares vs other categories of income (dividends)	659
16.2.1.2.	Capital gains on sales of shares vs gains arising from other transactions	661
16.2.1.3.	Liquidation, partial liquidation, treasury shares and distribution of share premium or other reserves that are not formed with profits	661
16.2.1.4.	Business restructuring involving shareholder companies: Domestic, cross-border and foreign	662
16.2.1.4.1.	Merger, spin-offs, contribution of assets	662
16.2.1.4.2.	Change of business purpose	665
16.2.1.4.3.	Transfer of registered seat	665
16.2.1.4.4.	Exchange	667
16.2.1.5.	Capital gains on shares vs capital gains on interest in other entities	667
16.2.1.6.	Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-resident companies	668
16.2.2.	Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	670
16.2.2.1.	Determination of the taxable gain	670
16.2.2.2.	Participation exemption regime	670
16.2.2.3.	Other special regime: Real estate companies	672
16.2.2.4.	Tax regime of capital gains on shares vs tax regime of dividends	674
16.2.2.5.	Capital gains on shares under IFRS accounting	678
16.2.2.6.	Gains derived by resident companies vs gains derived by non-resident companies	678
16.2.3.	Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	679
16.2.3.1.	Capital losses on disposition of shares	679
16.2.3.2.	Anti-abuse rules regarding capital losses on shares	680

Table of Contents

16.2.3.3. Capital losses derived by resident companies vs capital losses derived by non-resident companies	685
16.3. Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regime in domestic law	685
16.3.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of tax consolidation regime	685
16.3.1.1. Conditions to opt for the tax group regime	685
16.3.1.2. Neutralization of capital gains or losses under the tax group regime	688
16.3.1.3. End of neutralization of capital gains/losses	689
16.3.2. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regime	689
16.4. Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes and procedural issues	690
16.4.1. Registration duties	690
16.4.2. Financial transactions tax	692
16.4.3. Value added tax (VAT)	692
16.5. Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	693
16.5.1. Capital gains on shares taxation under CFC regime	693
16.5.2. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	696
16.5.3. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares of companies that do not satisfy certain business tests	697
16.5.3.1. Abuse of law theory	698
16.5.3.2. Provisions of article 238 bis -0 of the FTC	701
16.5.4. Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	702
16.6. Selected issues of taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	704
16.6.1. Impact of EU principles of tax neutrality in cross-border situations	704
16.6.2. EU principles of tax neutrality in respect of capital losses	707
16.7. Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	708
16.7.1. General principles	708

16.7.2.	Significant deviations from the OECD Model found in the treaty network	708
16.7.3.	Tax treaty anti-abuse rules and capital gains on shares	709
16.7.4.	Domestic anti-abuse rules or doctrines when tax treaties are involved	710
16.7.5.	Tax treaties and business restructurings	712
Chapter 17:	Germany	713
	by Ruben Martini and Tanja Weimar
17.1.	The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	713
17.1.1.	The meaning of “capital gains on shares” of corporations	713
17.1.1.1.	“Capital gains on shares” in German company law	713
17.1.1.2.	“Capital gains on shares” in general private law	714
17.1.1.3.	“Capital gains on shares” in accounting law	715
17.1.1.3.1.	General overview	715
17.1.1.3.2.	The relationship between accounting and income tax law	716
17.1.2.	The meaning of “capital gains on shares” of partnerships	717
17.2.	The meaning of “capital gains on shares” in domestic tax law	718
17.2.1.	Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	718
17.2.1.1.	Introduction	718
17.2.1.2.	Definition of capital gains on shares held by partnerships and individuals	718
17.2.1.2.1.	Investment income (section 20 of the EStG)	718
17.2.1.2.2.	Requalification as business income	718
17.2.1.3.	Definition of capital gains on shares of corporations held by corporate tax subjects (section 8b(2) of the KStG)	719
17.2.1.3.1.	Historical background	719
17.2.1.3.2.	Definition of capital gains on shares of corporations	721

Table of Contents

17.2.1.4.	Capital gains on shares of partnerships	725
17.2.2.	Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	725
17.2.2.1.	Shares in corporations	725
17.2.2.1.1.	The tax exemption of section 8b of the KStG	726
17.2.2.2.	Shares of a partnership	733
17.2.2.2.1.	Qualification and determination according to section 16(1) no. 2 of the EStG	733
17.2.2.2.2.	Tax privileges under section 34 of the EStG	734
17.2.3.	Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	735
17.2.3.1.	Tax deductibility of capital losses on shares	735
17.2.3.1.1.	Capital losses on shares of a corporation	735
17.2.3.1.2.	Capital losses on shares of a partnership	735
17.2.3.2.	Anti-abuse rules relating to capital losses on shares and dividend arbitrage schemes	736
17.3.	Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic tax law	736
17.3.1.	Consolidation regime (Organschaft)	737
17.3.2.	Tonnage taxation for operating merchant vessels	738
17.3.3.	REIT	739
17.4.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes	740
17.5.	Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	743
17.5.1.	Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	743
17.5.1.1.	Capital gains on shares derived through a permanent establishment	744
17.5.1.2.	Capital gains on shares of companies (formerly) resident in Germany	745
17.5.1.3.	Capital gains on shares subject to a withholding tax	746
17.5.1.4.	Unilateral participation exemption and non-resident taxpayers	747

17.5.2. Capital gains on shares under the German CFC regime	748
17.5.2.1. Capital gains on shares realized at the level of the controlled company	748
17.5.2.1.1. Attribution of capital gains on shares from passive investments	749
17.5.2.1.2. Qualification as fictitious dividend	749
17.5.2.1.3. Special regime for investment companies	750
17.5.2.2. Capital gains on shares of the controlled company at the level of the controlling company	751
17.5.3. Deemed alienation in case of losing the taxing right	751
17.6. Selected issues of taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	752
17.6.1. Neutrality in regard to residency	753
17.6.2. Capital losses on shares	753
17.6.3. Taxation of unrealized gains and the freedom of establishment	755
17.6.4. EU directive on capital gains in shares	758
17.6.5. Relationship to third countries	760
17.7. Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	762
17.7.1. Relationship of national and treaty notions	762
17.7.2. The German treaty network and capital gains on shares	762
17.7.2.1. Deviations from the OECD Model	763
17.7.2.2. Shares deriving their value from immovable property	766
17.7.2.3. Domestic switch-over clause	766
17.7.2.4. The concept of beneficial ownership	768
 Chapter 18: India	 771
by Dhaval J. Sanghavi
18.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	771
18.1.1. Non-tax law meaning of capital gains on shares	771
18.1.2. Liquidation, buy-backs, stock loans, etc.	772
18.1.2.1. Stock loans	772
18.1.2.2. Others	772

Table of Contents

18.1.3.	Capital gains on shares of companies vs gains on interest in other entities	772
18.1.3.1.	Investment funds	772
18.2.	The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	773
18.2.1.	Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	773
18.2.1.1.	Capital gains on shares vs other categories of income	773
18.2.1.1.1.	Capital gains	773
18.2.1.1.2.	Influence of double taxation issues	775
18.2.1.2.	Capital gains on sales of shares vs gains arising from other transactions	776
18.2.1.3.	Liquidation, partial liquidation, treasury shares and distribution of share premium or other reserves that are not formed with profits	778
18.2.1.4.	Business restructurings involving shareholder companies: Domestic, cross-border and foreign	779
18.2.1.4.1.	Domestic business restructuring aspects	779
18.2.1.4.2.	Cross-border restructuring aspects	780
18.2.1.4.3.	Foreign company restructuring aspects	781
18.2.1.5.	Capital gains on shares vs capital gains on interest in other entities	782
18.2.1.6.	Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-resident companies	784
18.2.1.6.1.	Transfer of a capital asset	784
18.2.1.6.2.	Situated in India	785
18.2.2.	Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	786
18.2.2.1.	Determination of the taxable gain	786
18.2.2.2.	Participation exemption regimes	787
18.2.2.3.	Other special regimes	787
18.2.2.4.	Tax regime of capital gains on shares vs tax regime of dividends	788
18.2.2.4.1.	Tax regime of capital gains	788
18.2.2.4.2.	Tax regime of dividends	788

18.2.2.4.3. Difference in treatment between capital gains and dividends	788
18.2.2.5. Gains derived by resident companies vs gains derived by non-resident companies	789
18.2.2.6. Anti-abuse rules	790
18.2.3. Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	791
18.2.3.1. Capital losses on disposal of shares	791
18.2.3.1.1. Set off of capital losses	791
18.2.3.2. Anti-abuse rules regarding capital losses on shares	792
18.2.3.2.1. Dividend stripping	793
18.2.3.2.2. Bonus stripping	793
18.2.3.3. Capital losses derived by resident companies vs capital losses derived by non-resident companies	793
18.3. Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	794
18.3.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of tax consolidation regime	794
18.3.2. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	794
18.3.2.1. Taxation of mutual funds	794
18.3.2.2. Taxation of income from venture capital companies and venture capital funds	794
18.3.2.3. Others	795
18.3.3. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of change of the legal form of the subsidiary/investee company	795
18.4. Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes (VAT, transfer tax, etc.) and procedural issues	796
18.4.1. Capital gains on shares, VAT and other indirect taxes	796
18.4.1.1. Selected issues of VAT taxation of capital gains on shares	796
18.4.1.2. Indirect taxes other than VAT applicable on capital gains on shares	796
18.4.2. Procedural issues relating to groups of companies and taxation of capital gains on shares	796
18.4.2.1. Application of anti-evasion or anti-abuse rules	796

Table of Contents

18.4.2.2.	Formalities to benefit from participation exemption or other tax regimes	797
18.4.2.3.	Withholding obligations and/or substitute tax issues	798
18.5.	Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	799
18.5.1.	Capital gains on shares taxation under CFC regimes	799
18.5.1.1.	Capital gains on shares derived by foreign CFCs	799
18.5.1.2.	Capital gains derived by controlling companies on shares in a CFC	799
18.5.2.	Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	799
18.5.2.1.	Rules targeted to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	799
18.5.2.1.1.	Evolution of the domestic anti-avoidance doctrine	800
18.5.3.	Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	801
18.5.3.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	801
18.5.3.1.1.	Vodafone case	802
18.5.3.1.2.	After-effects of the Supreme Court's judgment in Vodafone	804
18.5.3.1.3.	Shome Committee Report	805
18.5.3.2.	Notion of capital gains on shares when derived by non-resident taxpayers	806
18.5.3.3.	Taxation of capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers through permanent establishments	806
18.5.3.4.	Capital gains on shares: Elements of "business income" vs different elements of income	807
18.6.	Selected issues of taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	808
18.7.	Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	809
18.7.1.	Relationship between domestic law notion and treaty law notion of capital gains	809

18.7.2. Significant departures from the OECD Model found in the treaty network	809
18.7.3. Treaty benefits in cases of favourable tax regimes applicable to the subsidiary/investee company	811
18.7.4. Beneficial ownership and capital gains on shares	811
18.7.5. Tax treaty anti-abuse rules and capital gains on shares	812
18.7.6. Domestic anti-abuse rules or doctrines when tax treaties are involved	813
18.7.7. Tax treaties and business restructurings	813
18.7.8. Procedural aspects of claiming treaty reliefs	814
18.8. Summary chart	815
Chapter 19: Italy	817
by Filippo Maisto
19.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law (and under other non-tax legislation, e.g. accounting standards)	817
19.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	819
19.2.1. Introduction of the participation exemption – Systematic or beneficial regime?	820
19.2.2. Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	823
19.2.2.1. Capital gains on interest in other entities	825
19.2.2.2. Capital gains arising from other transactions	826
19.2.2.2.1. Distribution of share premium and other capital reserves	827
19.2.2.2.2. Exclusion, withdrawal, redemption, reduction of the share capital and liquidation	828
19.2.2.2.3. Repos and stock loans	829
19.2.2.2.4. Treasury shares	830
19.2.2.2.5. Buy-back of shares	830
19.2.2.2.6. Derivatives underlying assets are shares	831
19.2.2.2.7. Bare usufruct, options, convertible bonds and warrants	831

Table of Contents

19.2.3.	Business restructurings involving corporate shareholders: Domestic, cross-border and foreign	832
19.2.3.1.	Tax treatment of domestic merger/demergers/contributions/exchanges	833
19.2.3.1.1.	Domestic mergers and demergers	833
19.2.3.1.2.	Domestic share contributions and share exchanges	833
19.2.3.2.	Tax treatment of international merger/demergers/contributions/exchanges	836
19.2.3.2.1.	Cross-border mergers and demergers	836
19.2.3.2.2.	Cross-border share contributions and exchanges of shares	837
19.2.3.3.	Capital gains on shares in case of transfer of tax residence of the corporate shareholder	838
19.2.4.	Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	840
19.2.4.1.	The participation exemption requirements and their rationale	841
19.2.4.2.	Determination of the taxable base of capital gains	843
19.2.4.3.	Costs connected to the disposal of exempted shares	844
19.2.4.4.	Differences and similarities with the tax regime of dividends	845
19.2.4.5.	Special discipline for capital gains on shares under IFRS accounting	846
19.2.4.6.	Gains derived by resident companies vs gains derived by non-resident companies	849
19.2.5.	Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	850
19.2.5.1.	Anti-dividend washing provisions	850
19.2.5.2.	Capital losses on shares and general anti-avoidance provision	852
19.2.5.3.	Reporting obligations regarding capital losses on shares	853
19.3.	Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	854
19.3.1.	Tonnage tax regime	855
19.3.2.	SIIQs (listed real investment companies)	856

19.3.3. Tax consolidation	857
19.3.4. Insurance companies	857
19.3.5. Fiscal transparency regime	858
19.3.6. Change of the legal form of the investee company	859
19.3.7. Non-operating companies	859
19.3.8. Banks' credit recovery transactions	860
19.4. Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes and procedural issues	861
19.4.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes	861
19.4.1.1. VAT	861
19.4.1.1.1. Ownership of shares and VAT status of companies	861
19.4.1.1.2. Alienation of shares	862
19.4.1.1.3. Option to separate the activities for VAT purposes	864
19.4.1.2. Other indirect taxes	864
19.4.1.2.1. Mortgage dues and cadastral tax	864
19.4.1.2.2. Registration tax	864
19.4.1.2.3. Regional tax on production (IRAP)	865
19.4.1.2.4. Stamp duty	866
19.4.2. Procedural issues relating to groups of companies and taxation of capital gains on shares	866
19.4.2.1. Application of anti-evasion or anti-abuse rules	866
19.4.2.2. Formalities to benefit from the participation exemption and withholding obligations	868
19.5. Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	869
19.5.1. Capital gains on shares of companies residing in tax havens or countries having privileged tax regimes	869
19.5.2. Capital gains on shares taxation under CFC regime	870
19.5.3. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares of companies that do not satisfy the business test	872
19.5.3.1. Scope of the business test and comparison with the domestic notion of "business"	873
19.5.3.2. Business test with regard to real estate

Table of Contents

	companies	874
19.5.3.3.	Business test with regard to holding companies	876
19.5.3.4.	Business test with regard to companies carrying out preparatory works	877
19.5.4.	Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	879
19.5.4.1.	Capital gains on shares realized by non-resident companies without a PE in Italy	879
19.5.4.1.1.	Notion of capital gains on shares when realized by non-resident taxpayers without a PE in Italy	879
19.5.4.1.2.	Special territoriality rules and exemptions regarding capital gains on shares realized by non-resident taxpayers without a PE in Italy	880
19.5.4.1.3.	Capital gains on shares' tax rules for non-resident companies without a PE in Italy	882
19.5.4.2.	Capital gains on shares realized by non-resident companies with a PE in Italy	883
19.5.4.3.	Liquidation proceeds	884
19.5.4.4.	Share buy-backs	885
19.6.	Selected issues of taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	885
19.6.1.	Capital gains realized on non-resident investee companies	885
19.6.2.	Capital gains realized by corporate shareholders residing in EU or EEA Member States	885
19.6.3.	Capital gains on shares realized by third-country resident corporate shareholders	890
19.7.	Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	895
19.7.1.	Relationship between domestic law notion and treaty law notion of capital gains	895
19.7.1.1.	The definition of "alienation" and conflicts of qualification	895

19.7.1.2. The definition of “sale of shares” and conflicts of qualification	896
19.7.2. Italian treaty practice and departures from the OECD Model	897
19.7.2.1. Treaties signed with EU and EEA Member States	897
19.7.2.2. Treaties signed with third countries	897
19.7.3. Treaty benefits in cases of favourable tax regimes applicable to the subsidiary/investee company	899
19.7.4. Beneficial ownership and capital gains on shares	900
19.7.5. Tax treaty anti-abuse rules and capital gains on shares	900
19.7.6. Domestic anti-abuse rules or doctrines when tax treaties are involved	901
19.7.7. Tax treaties and business restructurings	904
19.7.7.1. Liquidation proceeds and distribution of share premium reserves	905
19.7.7.2. Share buy-backs	906
Chapter 20: Luxembourg	909
by Katarina Köszeghy and Georges Simon
20.1. Introduction	909
20.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	910
20.2.1. Delimitation of the analysis and terminological explanations	910
20.2.1.1. The shareholder	910
20.2.1.2. The company in which the shares are held	911
20.2.1.3. Capital gains on shares of companies	911
20.2.2. Non-tax law meaning of “capital gains on shares”	912
20.2.2.1. Capital gains on shares in company law	912
20.2.2.2. Capital losses	913
20.2.2.3. Peculiarities regarding partnerships	913
20.2.3. Liquidation, buy-backs, stock loans, etc.	913
20.2.3.1. Criteria for the capital gains on shares to exist	913
20.2.3.2. Capital gains on shares and liquidation of a company	913
20.2.3.3. Capital gains on shares and stock loans	914
20.2.3.3.1. Stock loans	914
20.2.3.3.2. Transfer of ownership of a share as security (transfert de propriété à titre de garantie)	915

Table of Contents

20.2.3.4.	Capital gains on shares and usufruct/bare ownership	916
20.2.4.	Capital gains on shares of companies vs gains on interest in other entities	916
20.2.4.1.	Shares of companies compared to interest in other entities	916
20.2.4.1.1.	Cooperatives	916
20.2.4.1.2.	Investment funds	917
20.2.4.1.3.	Partnerships	917
20.3.	The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	918
20.3.1.	Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	918
20.3.1.1.	Capital gains on shares vs other categories of income	918
20.3.1.1.1.	No positive definition of capital gains in tax law	918
20.3.1.1.2.	A negative definition of capital gains?	919
20.3.1.1.3.	A definition suggested by scholars	921
20.3.1.1.4.	Characteristics of “capital gains on shares”	922
20.3.1.1.5.	The interrelation of capital gains on shares with other categories of income, such as dividends	923
20.3.1.2.	Capital gains on shares vs gains arising from other transactions	923
20.3.1.2.1.	Gains arising for the resident shareholder upon the division of the net assets of a company (e.g. notably upon liquidation or merger)	924
20.3.1.2.2.	Change of legal form and transfer of a company abroad	924
20.3.1.2.3.	Capital reductions	925
20.3.1.3.	Business restructurings involving shareholder companies: Domestic, cross-border and foreign	925
20.3.1.3.1.	Liquidation/partial liquidation	925

20.3.1.3.2. Change of business entity’s form	926
20.3.1.3.3. Mergers and divisions	927
20.3.1.4. Capital gains on shares vs capital gains on interest in other entities	929
20.3.1.5. Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-resident companies	929
20.3.2. Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	930
20.3.2.1. Determination of the taxable gain	930
20.3.2.2. Participation exemption regimes	931
20.3.2.2.1. Participation exemption for dividends and capital gains	931
20.3.2.2.2. Other special regimes	933
20.3.2.3. Tax regime of capital gains on shares vs tax regime of dividends	935
20.3.2.4. Gains derived by resident companies vs gains derived by non-resident companies	935
20.3.2.5. Domestic anti-abuse rules	936
20.3.3. Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules	939
20.4. Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	939
20.4.1. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of tax consolidation regime	939
20.4.1.1. Conditions for the Luxembourg consolidation regime	940
24.4.1.2. Corporate income tax	941
24.4.1.2.1. Determination of the taxable basis	941
20.4.2. Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	941
20.4.2.1. FCP, SICAF and SICAV	942
20.4.2.1.1. The “ fonds commun de placement ” (FCP)	942
20.4.2.1.2. SICAV and SICAF	942
20.4.2.1.3. Specialized investment fund (SIF)	943
20.4.2.2. SICAR, securitization vehicle and SPF	943
20.4.2.2.1. The venture capital company (SICAR)	943
20.4.2.2.2. Securitization vehicle	944

Table of Contents

20.4.2.2.3.	Private wealth management company (société de gestion de patrimoine familial, SPF)	945
20.5.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes (VAT, transfer tax, etc.) and procedural issues	946
20.5.1.	Capital gains on shares, VAT and other indirect taxes	946
20.5.1.1.	Selected issues of VAT taxation of capital gains on shares	946
20.5.1.2.	Registration duties	946
20.5.2.	Procedural issues relating to groups of companies and taxation of capital gains on shares	947
20.5.2.1.	Application of anti-evasion or anti-abuse rules – The use of anti-evasion or anti-abuse rules for reassessment purposes	947
20.5.2.2.	Formalities to benefit from participation exemption on capital gains	949
20.5.2.3.	Withholding obligations and/or substitute tax issues	949
20.6.	Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	949
20.6.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares under CFC regimes	949
20.6.2.	Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	949
20.6.3.	Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares of companies that do not satisfy certain business tests	950
20.6.4.	Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	950
20.6.5.	Capital gains on shares: Elements of business income vs different elements of income	951
20.7.	Selected issues of taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	951
20.7.1.	Impact of EU principles of tax neutrality in cross-border situations	951
20.7.2.	EU principles of tax neutrality in respect of capital losses	953
20.7.2.1.	Compensation of capital losses with capital gains of the resident entity	953

20.7.3. Debate on the need to have an EU directive on capital gains on shares	954
20.7.3.1. The existence of a discussion regarding the need for the implementation of an EU directive on capital gains	954
20.7.3.2. The solution adopted in Luxembourg	954
20.7.3.3. The opportunity for an EU directive exempting capital gains	955
20.7.4. Capital gains on shares in third countries	956
20.8. Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	956
20.8.1. Relationship between domestic law notion and treaty law notion of capital gains	956
20.8.1.1. The notion of capital gains in article 13 of the OECD Model	956
20.8.1.1.1. Absence of a definition for the notion of capital gains in article 13 of the OECD Model	956
20.8.1.1.2. Absence of a definition of the notion of capital gains in the Commentary to Article 13 OECD Model	958
20.8.1.1.3. The notion of capital gains in article 13(5) of the OECD Model	958
20.8.1.2. The notion of capital gains in domestic tax law	959
20.8.2. Significant departures from the OECD Model found in the treaty network	959
20.8.3. Treaty benefits in cases of favourable tax regimes applicable to the subsidiary/investee company	962
20.8.4. Beneficial ownership and capital gains on shares	963
20.8.4.1. General scope of application: The “beneficial ownership” concept, a concept applicable with respect to dividends	963
20.8.4.2. The “beneficial ownership” concept: A concept applicable with respect to capital gains?	964
20.8.4.2.1. The concept of “beneficial ownership” in Luxembourg law	964
20.8.5. Tax treaty anti-abuse rules and capital gains on shares	967

Table of Contents

20.8.5.1. Treaty anti-abuse rules included in tax treaties concluded by Luxembourg	967
20.8.5.1.1. Anti-abuse rules contained in tax treaties (general)	967
20.8.5.1.2. LOB clauses	969
20.8.6. Tax treaties and business restructurings	971
20.8.7. Tax treaty non-discrimination	971
20.8.8. Procedural issues of claiming treaty reliefs	971
Chapter 21: Netherlands	973
by Jan van de Streek
21.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax-law	973
21.1.1. Notarial deed	973
21.1.2. Transfer restrictions upon the sale of shares in a BV	975
21.1.3. Company law rules on partial liquidation	976
21.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	977
21.2.1. The concept of capital gains, relation to other income categories and some specific transactions	977
21.2.1.1. Concept and relation to other income categories	977
21.2.1.2. Specific transactions	979
21.2.1.2.1. Liquidation	980
21.2.1.2.2. Partial liquidation and treasury shares	980
21.2.1.2.3. Distribution of share premium or other reserves (agio) that are not formed with profits	982
21.2.1.2.4. Business restructurings	983
21.2.1.2.5. Assignment of shares of the subsidiary/investee company to the shareholders	984
21.2.1.2.6. Usufruct/bare ownership	984
21.2.1.2.7. Stock loans, repos and share buy-backs	985
21.2.1.2.8. Derivatives the underlying assets of which are shares	987

21.2.1.2.9.	Capital gains or losses incorporated into the profit and loss statement as a consequence of the change in the fair value or of an impairment	988
21.2.1.3.	Business restructuring involving shareholder companies	988
21.2.1.3.1.	Domestic business restructurings	988
21.2.1.3.2.	Cross-border business restructurings	989
21.2.1.3.3.	Foreign business restructurings	990
21.2.1.4.	Capital gains on shares vs capital gains on interest in other entities	991
21.2.1.5.	Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-residents	993
21.2.2.	Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	994
21.2.2.1.	Determination of the taxable gain	994
21.2.2.2.	Participation exemption regime	995
21.2.2.3.	Other special regimes	999
21.2.3.3.1.	Roll-over facility	999
21.2.3.3.2.	The exchange principle	1000
21.2.2.4.	Capital gains tax regime vs dividend tax regimes	1000
21.2.2.5.	Capital gains on shares under IFRS accounting	1001
21.2.2.6.	Gains derived by resident companies vs gains derived by non-resident companies	1001
21.2.3.	Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	1002
21.2.3.1.	Capital losses on disposal of shares	1002
21.2.3.2.	Anti-abuse rules regarding losses on shares	1003
21.2.3.3.	Capital losses under IFRS accounting	1004
21.2.3.4.	Capital losses derived by resident companies vs capital losses derived by non-resident companies	1004
21.3.	Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special regimes in domestic law	1005
21.3.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of tax consolidation regime	1005

Table of Contents

21.3.2.	Taxation of capital gain on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	1007
21.3.2.1.	Investment funds	1007
21.3.2.2.	Tonnage tax regime	1008
21.3.2.3.	Innovation box tax regime	1010
21.3.3.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of change of the legal form of the subsidiary/investee company	1011
21.4.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes	1011
21.4.1.	Capital gains on shares and VAT	1011
21.4.1.1.	Introduction	1011
21.4.1.2.	The Supreme Court decisions in 2003 and 2004	1013
21.4.1.3.	Opinion of the State Secretary of Finance	1015
21.4.1.4.	The SKF case and the pending Dutch follow-up Case C-651/11	1017
21.4.2.	Capital gains on shares and real estate transfer tax	1019
21.4.3.	Procedural issues	1020
21.5.	Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	1021
21.5.1.	Capital gains on shares taxation under the Dutch “lookalike” CFC regime	1021
21.5.2.	Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	1022
21.5.2.1.	Introduction	1022
21.5.2.2.	Motive test	1023
21.5.2.3.	Substantial taxation test	1024
21.5.2.4.	Asset test	1026
21.5.3.	Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	1028
21.5.3.1.	Capital gains on shares attributable to a Dutch PE	1028
21.5.3.2.	Substantial interest in a Dutch company	1030
21.6.	Selected issues of taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	1034
21.6.1.	Switch-over from the participation exemption to the credit method	1034
21.6.2.	The creditable amount	1038
21.6.3.	Substantial interest regime	1039

21.7. Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	1040
21.7.1. General Dutch treaty policy with respect to capital gains on shares	1040
21.7.2. Purchase by a company of shares in its capital/liquidation distribution	1041
21.7.3. Capital gains on shares deriving their value from immovable property	1043
21.7.4. Anti-abuse rules included in tax treaties with respect to capital gains	1044
21.7.5. Application of domestic anti-abuse rules in treaty situations with respect to capital gains	1046
21.7.6. Transfer of seat and deemed capital gain on shares (exit tax)	1049
21.8. Summary Chart Netherlands	1050

Chapter 22: Norway

by Kristine Ilstad

22.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under Norwegian domestic non-tax law	1055
22.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	1057
22.2.1. Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories or subcategories of income	1057
22.2.1.1. Capital gains on shares vs other categories of income	1057
22.2.1.2. Capital gains on sales of shares vs gains arising from other transactions	1059
22.2.1.3. Liquidation, partial liquidation, treasury shares and distribution of share premium or other reserves that are not formed with profits	1061
22.2.1.4. Business restructurings involving shareholder companies: Domestic, cross-border and foreign	1063
22.2.1.5. Capital gains on shares vs capital gains on interest in other entities	1066
22.2.1.6. Source of capital gains for taxation of gains derived by non-resident companies	1066
22.2.2. Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	1067

Table of Contents

22.2.2.1.	Determination of the taxable gain	1067
22.2.2.2.	Participation exemption regime applicable on capital gains on shares	1067
22.2.2.2.1.	Introduction	1067
22.2.2.2.2.	Qualifying subjects	1068
22.2.2.2.3.	Qualifying objects	1069
22.2.2.3.	Tax regime of capital gains on shares vs tax regime of dividends	1071
22.2.2.4.	Gains derived by resident companies vs gains derived by non-resident companies	1073
22.2.2.5.	Anti-abuse rules	1074
22.2.3.	Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules relating to dividend arbitrage schemes	1075
22.2.3.1.	Capital losses on disposal of shares	1075
22.2.3.2.	Anti-abuse rules regarding capital losses on shares	1077
22.2.3.2.	Capital losses derived by resident companies vs capital losses derived by non-resident companies	1078
22.3.	Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	1079
22.3.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of tax consolidation regime	1079
22.3.2.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of other special tax regimes	1080
22.3.2.1.	The Norwegian petroleum tax regime	1080
22.3.2.2.	The Norwegian tonnage tax regime	1080
22.3.2.3.	Other special tax regimes	1081
22.3.3.	Taxation of capital gains on shares in cases of change of the legal form of the subsidiary/investee company	1081
22.4.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes (VAT, transfer tax, etc.) and procedural issues	1082
22.4.1.	Capital gains on shares, VAT and other indirect taxes	1082
22.4.2.	Procedural issues relating to groups of companies and taxation of capital gains on shares	1083
22.4.2.1.	Application of anti-evasion or anti-abuse rules	1083
22.4.2.2.	Formalities to benefit from participation exemption or other tax regimes	1083

22.4.2.3. Withholding obligations and/or substitute tax issues	1084
22.5. Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	1085
22.5.1. Capital gains on shares taxation under CFC regimes	1085
22.5.1.1. Capital gains on shares derived by foreign CFCs	1085
22.5.1.2. Capital gains derived by controlling companies on shares in a CFC	1086
22.5.2. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	1088
22.5.2.1. Rules targeted to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	1088
22.5.2.2. Open issues and burden of proof	1088
22.5.3. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares of companies that do not satisfy certain business tests	1089
22.5.3.1. Rules targeted to capital gains on shares of companies that do not satisfy certain business tests	1089
22.5.3.2. Scope of the business test and comparison with the domestic notion of “business”	1089
22.5.3.3. Open issue and burden of proof	1091
22.5.4. Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	1092
22.5.4.1. Taxation of capital gain on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	1092
22.5.4.2. Notion of capital gains on shares when derived by non-resident taxpayers	1092
22.5.4.3. Notion of capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers through permanent establishments	1092
22.6. Selected issues on taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	1092
22.7. Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	1093
22.7.1. Relationship between domestic law notion and treaty law notion of capital gains	1093

Table of Contents

22.7.2. Significant departures from the OECD Model found in the treaty network	1093
22.7.3. Treaty benefits in cases of favourable tax regimes applicable to the subsidiary/investee company	1094
22.7.4. Beneficial ownership and capital gains on shares	1094
22.7.5. Tax treaty anti-abuse rules and capital gains on shares	1094
22.7.6. Domestic anti-abuse rules or doctrines when tax treaties are involved	1096
22.7.7. Tax treaties and business restructurings	1096
22.7.8. Tax treaty non-discrimination	1096
22.7.9. Procedural aspects of claiming treaty reliefs	1096

Chapter 23: Sweden

by Adriana Krzymowska

23.1. The meaning of “capital gains on shares”	1097
23.1.1. Introduction	1097
23.1.2. Definitions	1098
23.1.3. Background	1099
23.1.4. Capital gains on shares	1100
23.1.5. Capital losses on shares	1104
23.1.6. Treatment of capital gains and losses	1106
23.2. Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	1109
23.2.1. Introduction	1109
23.2.2. Taxation of capital gains on shares in participation exemption	1109
23.2.3. Treatment of capital gains on participation exemption	1111
23.2.4. Capital gains under special tax regime for closely held companies	1112
23.2.5. Taxation of capital gains on shares in closely held companies	1114
23.3. Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes (VAT)	1115
23.3.1. Capital gains on shares – VAT	1115
23.4. Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	1121
23.4.1. Capital gains on shares taxation under CFC regimes	1121
23.4.2. Domestic anti-abuse rules with respect to capital gains on shares sourced in tax havens or countries with privileged tax regimes	1124

23.4.3. Issues relating to the application of income tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	1126
Chapter 24: Switzerland	1129
by Roland A. Pfister and Thierry Obrist
24.1. Introduction	1129
24.2. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic non-tax law	1130
24.3. The meaning of “capital gains on shares” under domestic tax law	1130
24.3.1. General overview of the Swiss tax system for the taxation of capital gains	1130
24.3.1.1. Capital gains on private and on business assets	1130
24.3.1.2. Distinction between capital gains and income from participations: Objective vs subjective concepts of income	1132
24.3.1.3. Determination of the taxable profit of a company: Principle of authoritativeness	1133
24.3.1.4. Timing of the taxation: Realization principle	1134
24.3.1.5. Determination of the taxable basis: Book value principle	1135
24.3.2. Definition of “capital gains on shares” and interrelation with other categories and subcategories of income	1136
24.3.2.1. Principle of total income taxation	1136
24.3.2.2. Capital gains on real estate	1137
24.3.2.3. Liquidation of a Swiss company	1138
24.3.2.4. Reduction and increase of share capital	1138
24.3.2.5. Transfer of residence abroad	1139
24.3.2.6. Other selected operations	1140
24.3.2.7. Business restructuring	1142
24.3.2.8. Capital gains on shares vs capital gains on interest in other entities	1143
24.3.2.9. Source of capital gains	1145
24.3.3. Income tax treatment of “capital gains on shares”	1146
24.3.3.1. Determination of the taxable gain	1146
24.3.3.2. Participation relief mechanism	1146
24.3.3.2.1. General description	1146

Table of Contents

24.3.3.2.2.	General conditions for the applicability of the participation relief	1148
24.3.3.2.3.	Subjective scope	1149
24.3.3.2.4.	Objective scope	1152
24.3.3.2.5.	Future developments	1155
24.3.3.2.6.	Excursus: Partial taxation mechanism applicable to individuals	1155
24.3.3.3.	Reinvestment relief	1156
24.3.3.3.1.	General description	1156
24.3.3.3.2.	Subjective scope	1158
24.3.3.3.3.	Objective scope	1158
24.3.4.	Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility and anti-abuse rules	1159
24.4.	Tax treatment of capital gains on shares under special tax regimes in domestic law	1161
24.4.1.	Tax treatment of capital gains on the alienation of shares subject to special Swiss tax regimes	1161
24.4.1.1.	General overview	1161
24.4.1.2.	Ordinarily taxed Swiss companies and the participation relief regime	1163
24.4.1.2.1.	Introduction	1163
24.4.1.2.2.	Tax consequences of the alienation of shares by ordinarily taxed Swiss companies	1163
24.4.1.3.	Swiss holding companies	1164
24.4.1.3.1.	Introduction	1164
24.4.1.3.2.	Tax consequences of the alienation of shares by Swiss holding companies	1165
24.4.1.4.	Swiss mixed (auxiliary) companies	1165
24.4.1.4.1.	Introduction	1165
24.4.1.4.2.	Tax consequences of the alienation of shares by Swiss mixed (auxiliary) companies	1166
24.4.1.5.	Swiss domiciliary companies	1166
24.4.1.5.1.	Introduction	1166
24.4.1.5.2.	Tax consequences of the alienation of shares by Swiss domiciliary companies	1167

24.5.	Taxation of capital gains on shares for indirect tax purposes (VAT, transfer tax, etc.)	1167
24.5.1.	Tax treatment of capital gains for VAT purposes	1167
24.5.2.	Tax treatment of capital gains for withholding tax purposes	1169
24.5.3.	Tax treatment of capital gains for securities transfer tax	1170
24.6.	Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	1170
24.6.1.	The criterion of the “place of effective management” based on the Federal Supreme Court decision of 4 December 2003	1171
24.6.2.	The criterion of “tax transparency” based on the Federal Supreme Court decision of 30 January 2006	1172
24.6.3.	Conclusion	1173
24.7.	Selected issues of taxation of capital gains on shares under EU law	1173
24.7.1.	General remarks	1173
24.7.2.	Swiss-EU savings tax agreement	1174
24.7.3.	Discrimination issues	1175
24.7.4.	Exit tax	1176
24.8.	Selected issues of capital gains on shares taxation under tax treaties	1178
24.8.1.	Definition of capital gains under the OECD Model	1178
24.8.1.1.	Interpretation of the term “property”	1179
24.8.1.2.	Interpretation of the term “gains”	1180
24.8.1.3.	Interpretation of the term “alienation”	1180
24.8.1.4.	Intermediate conclusion	1180
24.8.2.	Significant departures from the OECD Model found in the treaty network	1181
24.8.2.1.	Introduction	1181
24.8.2.2.	Alienation of immovable property under article 13(1) of the OECD Model	1182
24.8.2.2.1.	The effect of article 13(1)	1182
24.8.2.2.2.	Comparison of the alienation of immovable property under Article 13(1) of the OECD Model to the alienation of immovable property under Swiss DTCs	1183
24.8.2.3.	Alienation of movable property under article 13(2) of the OECD Model	1184

Table of Contents

24.8.2.3.1.	The effect of article 13(2)	1184
24.8.2.3.2.	Comparison of the alienation of movable property under article 13(2) OECD Model to the alienation of movable Property under Swiss DTCs	1184
24.8.2.4.	Alienation of ships and aircraft operated in international traffic under article 13(3) of the OECD Model	1185
24.8.2.4.1.	The effect of article 13(3)	1185
24.8.2.4.2.	Comparison of the alienation of ships or aircraft operated in international traffic under article 13(3) of the OECD Model to the alienation of ships or aircraft operated in international traffic under Swiss DTCs	1186
24.8.2.5.	Alienation of shares deriving more than 50% of their value directly or indirectly from immovable property under article 13(4) of the OECD Model	1187
24.8.2.5.1.	The effect of article 13(4)	1187
24.8.2.5.2.	Comparison of the alienation of shares in real estate companies under article 13(4) of the OECD Model to the alienation of shares in real estate companies under Swiss DTCs	1187
24.8.2.6.	Alienation of other property under article 13(5) of the OECD Model	1188
24.8.2.6.1.	The effect of article 13(5)	1188
24.8.2.6.2.	Comparison of the alienation of other property under article 13(5) of the OECD Model to the alienation of other property under Swiss DTCs	1188
24.8.3.	Treaty benefits in cases of favourable tax regimes applicable to the subsidiary/investee company	1189
24.8.4.	Beneficial ownership and capital gains on shares	1192
24.8.5.	Tax treaty anti-abuse rules and capital gains on shares	1194

24.8.5.1. General anti-abuse principle	1195
24.8.5.2. Gains derived from the alienation of shares in immovable property companies	1195
24.8.5.3. Limitation on benefits clause	1196
24.8.6. Domestic anti-abuse rules or doctrines when tax treaties are involved	1196
24.8.7. Tax treaties and business restructurings	1196
24.8.8. Tax treaty non-discrimination	1196
Chapter 25: United States	1199
by Mark S. Hoose
25.1. The meaning of the term “capital gain on shares” under domestic non-tax law	1199
25.1.1. Definition of “capital gain on shares” under relevant corporate law	1199
25.1.2. Definition of “capital gain on shares” under relevant accounting standards	1200
25.1.3. Other non-tax issues	1203
25.2. The meaning of the term “capital gain” under domestic tax law	1204
25.2.1. The definition of “capital gain” and interrelation with other categories or sub-categories of income	1204
25.2.1.1. Capital gain on shares vs other categories of income	1205
25.2.1.2. Capital gain on sale of shares vs gains arising from other transactions	1206
25.2.1.3. Liquidations	1207
25.2.1.4. Redemption transactions (buy-backs) can potentially result in capital gains	1208
25.2.1.5. Business restructurings involving corporations: Domestic, cross-border and foreign	1210
25.2.1.5.1. Domestic restructurings	1211
25.2.1.5.2. Cross-border restructurings	1212
25.2.1.5.3. Foreign restructurings	1215
25.2.1.6. Capital gains from shares vs capital gain on interests in other entities	1216
25.2.1.7. Taxation of gains derived by non-resident corporations and individuals	1217
25.2.2. Income tax treatment of capital gains arising from corporate shares	1218

Table of Contents

25.2.2.1.	Determination of taxable gain	1218
25.2.2.2.	Taxability of capital gains – Lack of participation exemption	1219
25.2.2.3.	Preferential taxation of capital gains	1219
25.2.2.4.	Taxation of capital gains and dividends compared	1219
25.2.2.5.	Taxation of gains derived by non-resident corporations and individuals	1224
25.2.2.6.	Anti-abuse rules	1224
25.2.3.	Capital losses on shares – Tax deductibility	1225
25.2.3.1.	Capital loss deductibility – General rules	1225
25.2.3.2.	Anti-abuse rules and capital losses	1226
25.2.3.3.	Losses of non-residents	1227
25.3.	Tax treatment of capital gain on shares under special tax regimes under US law	1227
25.3.1.	Tax consolidation	1227
25.3.2.	Special entities – Regulated investment companies and real estate investment trusts	1228
25.3.3.	Conversion of a partnership to a corporation and vice-versa	1230
25.4.	Capital gain taxation for indirect tax purposes and procedural issues	1232
25.4.1.	Capital gains and indirect taxes	1232
25.4.2.	Procedural issues relating to capital gain taxation	1232
25.4.2.1.	Application of anti-abuse rules	1232
25.4.2.2.	General capital gain reporting and withholding	1233
25.5.	Selected issues in the tax treatment of cross-border inbound and outbound capital gains on shares under domestic law	1234
25.5.1.	Capital gain taxation under CFC regimes	1234
25.5.1.1.	Capital gains on shares derived by CFCs (FPHCI)	1235
25.5.1.2.	Capital gain on sale of shares in a CFC	1236
25.5.2.	Domestic anti-abuse rules for gain on shares in tax-haven incorporated entities	1237
25.5.3.	Capital gains on sales of shares in other corporations	1238
25.5.4.	Application of US tax on capital gains on shares derived by non-resident taxpayers	1239
25.5.4.1.	Taxation of capital gains on shares derived by non-residents	1239
25.5.4.2.	FIRPTA	1240

25.5.4.3. Taxation of gains derived as business income	1240
25.6. Selected issues of capital gain taxation under EU law	1242
25.7. Selected issues of capital gain taxation under tax treaties	1242
25.7.1. Capital gain taxation under US income tax treaties generally	1242
25.7.2. OECD approach	1244
25.7.3. Tax treaty treatment of gains on disposition of by special entities	1245
25.7.4. Beneficial ownership under US tax treaties	1245
25.7.5. Limitation on benefits provisions in US tax treaties	1246
25.7.6. Limitations on treaty benefits under US domestic law	1250
25.7.7. Tax treaties and business restructurings	1250
25.7.8. Non-discrimination and procedure	1251
 Contributors	 1255