

The Burden of Proof in Tax Law

Preface

List of authors

Abbreviations

Part 1

General report

1.1. National concepts (Börje Leidhammar)

- 1.1.1. General rule on the burden of proof
- 1.1.2. Burden of proof: statutory or case law
- 1.1.3. Variations on the general rule depending on time period or if it is claimed that the taxpayer has submitted false/incorrect information
- 1.1.4. Tax penalties and the burden of proof
- 1.1.5. Burden of proof regarding discretionary decisions on tax issues or regarding estimated assessments
- 1.1.6. Variations in burden of proof with respect to tax havens, etc.
- 1.1.7. Level of the burden of proof
  - 1.1.7.1. Statutory law or case law on the level of the burden of proof?
  - 1.1.7.2. Different rules for different authorities?
- 1.1.8. Evidentiary requirements in discretionary/estimated tax assessments
- 1.1.9. Evidentiary requirements depending on exchange of information, tax havens, etc.
- 1.1.10. Different evidentiary requirements for different types of taxes
- 1.1.11. General rule on evaluation of evidence and the limitations to such a rule
  - 1.1.11.1. General rule
  - 1.1.11.2. Limitations to the general rule
  - 1.1.11.3. Statutory or case law

1.2. Burden of proof and anti-abuse provisions

(Klaus-Dieter Drüen and Daniel Drissen)

- 1.2.1. The general concept of burden of proof in abuse-prone situations
  - 1.2.1.1. Reference to general burden of proof rules
  - 1.2.1.2. Special burden of proof scheme
- 1.2.2. Alteration of the burden of proof concept in special abuse-prone tax fields
  - 1.2.2.1. Special abuse-prone tax fields
  - 1.2.2.2. Different allocation or level of burden of proof
  - 1.2.2.3. Limits to the reversal of the burden of proof

1.2.3. Methods and procedure of reviewing the given proof

1.2.3.1. Tax authority

1.2.3.2. Independent institution

1.2.3.3. Tax court

1.3. Burden of proof and European tax law (Gerard Meussen)

1.3.1. EU law and the reversal of the burden of proof

1.3.2. Reversal of the burden of proof and time limits

1.3.3. Reversal of the burden of proof and transactions with non-domestic entities

1.3.4. Donations to foreign charitable institutions and the burden of proof

1.3.5. The burden of proof and proportionality

1.4. The burden of proof in cross-border situations (international tax law)

(Giuseppe Marino)

1.4.1. Introduction

1.4.2. The burden of proof between tax authorities and taxpayers in transfer pricing cases

1.4.3. Set of documents in transfer pricing cases

1.4.4. Imposition of penalties and the burden of proof

1.4.5. Type of documents to be provided

1.4.6. Burden of proof and international agreements

Part 2

Special reports

2.1. The burden of proof on tax matters under Spanish general anti-abuse rules (Maria Rodriguez- Bereijo León)

2.1.1. The General Anti-Abuse Rules (GAARs) provided by Spanish general tax law: similarities and differences

2.1.2. The problems of compatibility in Spanish GAARs

2.1.3. Spanish GAARs and the burden of proof

2.2. The Swedish general anti-abuse provision (Stefan Olsson)

2.2.1. The history of the general anti-abuse provision

2.2.2. The construction of the provision in current law

2.2.3. The division of the burden of proof regarding the provision

2.2.4. The Swedish advance rulings system

2.3. Burden of proof and European tax law (Roman Seer)

2.3.1. Introduction

2.3.2. Burden of proof regarding a tax-exempt status – inbound case

2.3.3. Deductibility of cross-border donations – outbound case

2.3.4. Burden of proof and income adjustments: CFC legislation issue

2.3.5. Burden of proof and income adjustments along the lines of Art. 9

Part 3

National Reports

3.1. Questionnaire (Gerard Meussen, Klaus-Dieter Drüen, Börje Leidhammar and Giuseppe Marino)

- 3.1.1. National concepts
- 3.1.2. Burden of proof in anti-abuse provisions
- 3.1.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
- 3.1.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

3.2. Austria (Johannes Heinrich)

- 3.2.1. Austrian national concept
- 3.2.2. Burden of proof in Austrian anti-abuse provisions
- 3.2.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
- 3.2.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

3.3. Denmark (Jane Bolander and Jacob Graff Nielsen)

- 3.3.1. Danish concepts concerning the burden of proof
- 3.3.2. Burden of proof in Danish anti-abuse provisions
- 3.3.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
- 3.3.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

3.4. Finland (Olli Ryyänen)

- 3.4.1. Introduction
- 3.4.2. The duty to explore facts
- 3.4.3. The duty to cooperate
- 3.4.4. Burden of proof principles of general application
- 3.4.5. Burden of proof rules regarding special tax measures
  - 3.4.5.1. Distinct negative tax claims
  - 3.4.5.2. The realm of tax avoidance
  - 3.4.5.3. Transfer pricing and related phenomena
  - 3.4.5.4. Tax assessment by estimate
  - 3.4.5.5. Unaccounted increase in wealth
  - 3.4.5.6. Subsequent adjustment of tax decisions
- 3.4.6. Administrative sanctions
- 3.4.7. Summary

3.5. France (Christophe de la Martinière)

- 3.5.1. French concepts concerning the burden of proof

- 3.5.2. Burden of proof in French anti-abuse provision
- 3.5.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
- 3.5.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

- 3.6. Germany (Roman Seer)
  - 3.6.1. Terminology/introduction
  - 3.6.2. Burden of proof in German anti-abuse provisions
  - 3.6.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
  - 3.6.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

- 3.7. Greece (Konstantinos Finokaliotis with the assistance of Aikaterini Savvaidou, George Matsos and Dimos Psarris)
  - 3.7.1. National concept of burden of proof
  - 3.7.2. Burden of proof in Greek tax provisions against abuse
  - 3.7.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
  - 3.7.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

- 3.8. Italy (Andrea Ballancin)
  - 3.8.1. Concept of burden of proof
  - 3.8.2. Burden of proof in Italian anti-abuse provisions
  - 3.8.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
  - 3.8.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

- 3.9. The Netherlands (Robert Jan Koopman and Ramon Dwarkasing)
  - 3.9.1. National concepts
  - 3.9.2. Burden of proof in Netherlands anti-abuse provisions
  - 3.9.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
  - 3.9.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

- 3.10. Norway (Benn Folkvord)
  - 3.10.1. National concept of burden of proof
  - 3.10.2. Burden of proof in anti-avoidance provisions
  - 3.10.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
  - 3.10.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

- 3.11. Portugal (Nuno de Oliveira Garcia and José Almeida Fernandes)
  - 3.11.1. Terminology/basic concepts
  - 3.11.2. Burden of proof in anti-abuse provisions
  - 3.11.3. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

3.12. Spain (Maria Rodriguez- Bereijo León)

- 3.12.1. National concept
- 3.12.2. Burden of proof in anti-abuse provisions
- 3.12.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
- 3.12.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

3.13. Sweden (Stefan Olsson)

- 3.13.1. National concept burden of proof
- 3.13.2. Burden of proof in Swedish anti-abuse provisions
- 3.12.3. The burden of proof and European tax law
- 3.12.4. Burden of proof in cross- border situations (international tax law):
transfer pricing aspects

3.14. Turkey (Hakan Üzeltürk)

- 3.14.1. Introduction
- 3.14.2. Meaning of proof
  - 3.14.2.1. In private law
  - 3.14.2.2. In criminal law
  - 3.14.2.3. In administrative proceedings
  - 3.14.2.3. Tax principles
- 3.14.3. General rule on the burden of proof in tax matters
  - 3.14.3.1. General rule
  - 3.14.3.2. Evidence
    - a. Taxpayer
    - b. Tax administration
- 3.14.4. Variations in the burden of proof and anti-abuse provision
  - 3.14.4.1. Variations in burden of proof
  - 3.14.4.2. Principle of economic approach
  - 3.14.4.3. Anti-abuse provision
  - 3.14.4.4. Burden of proof problems: an example
- 3.14.5. Case law
- 3.14.6. Principles regarding proof in the tax courts
  - 3.14.6.1. Principles of ex officio investigation
  - 3.14.6.2. Principles of freedom of evidence
  - 3.14.6.3. Ban on comparison
- 3.14.7. Transfer pricing system
  - 3.14.7.1. Introduction
  - 3.14.7.2. Transfer pricing methods
  - 3.14.7.3. Related parties
  - 3.14.7.4. Documentation
  - 3.14.7.5. Advance Price Agreements (APA)
  - 3.14.7.6. Penalties
  - 3.14.7.7. Tax havens
  - 3.14.7.8. The concept of "Treasury Loss" in the application of transfer pricing

3.14.7.9. Burden of proof and bilateral conventions

3.15. United States of America (Henry Ordower)

3.15.1. Introduction

3.15.2. Burden of proof: general aspects

3.15.2.1. Civil matters: administrative settlement

3.15.2.2. Civil matters: taxpayer as plaintiff

3.15.2.3. Collection and criminal proceedings

3.15.3. Background on United States federal taxes

3.15.4. Litigation forums - procedural background

3.15.4.1. Court jurisdiction in civil tax matters

3.15.5. Specific burden of proof rules

3.15.5.1. United States national concepts

3.15.4.2. Transfer pricing aspects