8th GREIT Annual Conference

On 19 and 20 June 2013, the Group for Research on European and International Taxation (GREIT) held its annual conference in Lund, on the topic of “Principles of law: Function, status and impact in EU tax law”. The event was hosted by the Department of Business Law, School of Economics and Management & the Faculty of Law of Lund University.

This year’s conference was the 8th edition of the annual conference and saw the GREIT – an initiative set up by Prof. Cécile Brokelind (University of Lund), Prof. Ana Paula Dourado (University of Lisbon), Prof. Pasquale Pistone (Academic Chairman IBFD, WU Vienna and University of Salerno) and Prof. Dennis Weber (University of Amsterdam) – return to Lund where it was founded in 2006 with the objective of establishing a scientific dialogue among researchers with expertise in European and international tax law and with researchers from different areas of law and economics.

The focus of this year’s conference was on the role and importance of unwritten sources of law in EU tax law, which are often referred to as the principles of law. For the details on “Principles of law: function, status and impact in EU tax law”, please see below:

– Panel 1 – The use and misuse of principles.
– Panel 2 – The constitutional principles.
– Panel 3 – The principles underlying tax systems.

See also

European Union-3, News 1 July 2013
European Union-2, News 1 July 2013